Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

Today the Church enters into its most Holy Week of the liturgical year with the celebration of the Lord's triumphal entry into Jerusalem. In no other time of the year do we take such an active role in the celebration of our Lord's redeeming mysteries. Today we stand like the children of Israel with palms in our hands and cry out with them "Hosanna to the Son of David! All glory, laud, and honor to you redeemer king!" Yes, Christ enters Jerusalem in triumph but his public praise is short lived. Christ did not come as a king of this world. He did not seek to manifest himself with power and a great show of strength. Rather, he came to establish his kingdom by suffering and dying on the Cross and rising again to redeem us from our sins.

I am often struck by how quickly the liturgy changes in tone from the triumphal procession to the reading of the Passion in the Gospel. No sooner do we finish saying "Hosanna to the Son of David" than the words of the crowd are on our lips "crucify him, crucify him." It is a stark reminder for me of how easy it is to praise the Lord everyday in Mass and everyday also to deny him by my sins. But sin does not have the final say. Through the death and resurrection of Jesus he has triumphed over sin and death.

The blessed palm branches we receive are a symbol of that triumph of Christ. It is a praiseworthy custom to place them around a crucifix in your home as a reminder of how exactly Jesus triumphed over the wiles of the evil one. For us too, they are a sign of perseverance, that we who persevere through the crosses in our own life will come to experience the triumph of the Lord in the resurrection to come.

A blessed Holy Week to you all.

Fr. Reither

Lenten Regulations

The season of Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, March 2. Lenten regulations are as follows:

1. Catholics who have celebrated their 14th birthday are to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, all Fridays in Lent, and Good Friday.
2. In addition to abstaining from meat, Catholics who have celebrated their 18th birthday, until they celebrate their 59th birthday, are to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Those who are bound to this regulation may eat only one full meal. Two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal are permitted if necessary to maintain strength according to one's needs, but eating solid foods between meals is not permitted.

If possible, the fast on Good Friday is continued until the Easter Vigil (on Holy Saturday night) as the "paschal fast" to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus and to prepare ourselves to share more fully and to celebrate more readily his Resurrection.

(Those that are excused from fast and abstinence include the physically or mentally ill including individuals suffering from chronic illnesses such as diabetes. Also excluded are pregnant or nursing women. In all cases, common sense should prevail, and ill persons should not further jeopardize their health by fasting.)
