EASTER REFLECTION

What a year it has been. With the Covid -9 pandemic preventing us from attending Mass in person on a regular basis to other obstacles that has forced us to look at how we practice our faith on a regular basis. I myself suffered from this virus, and I pray that you and your families are doing well.

We start Easter with, of course, Holy Thursday in which Christ instituted the Eucharist. Then we pause on Good Friday to remember how Christ suffered for our salvation and was raised from the dead on Easter morning. A variety of emotions during the various times with one thing to reflect on most diligently and that is God's love for us.

I wish you and your families a blessed Easter.

Fr. Bob Harris

The All Saints Staff want to wish you and your families a blessed Easter.

EASTER REFLECTION 2021

As I was preparing this reflection, I looked back at what I had written last Easter, and reviewed documents I prepared to celebrate Holy Week and Easter 2020. It seems like a long time ago, and much water has passed under the proverbial bridge in the past twelve months. I had almost forgotten that the church had shut down for in person worship and we were celebrating Mass with pews devoid of the faithful and transmitting the liturgy via a feeble signal through either a smart phone or inexpensive camcorder. It was never clear whether anything we said ever made it out to you, as we were never sure if the sound was working that day.

Looking back a year, the Lenten and Easter season were darkened by the cloud of the coronavirus pandemic. There was overwhelming anxiety and fears of what was to come. There were lock downs, rampant unemployment, separation from family and friends and physical separation from the sacrament of the Eucharist. Many of us have lost friends, family and loved ones due to COVID 19 or other illnesses at a time when we could not be physically present to be with them.

Although I felt that joy of Easter and the resurrection of Christ, it was subdued, as we were living in the shadow of the coronavirus and the unknown. What a difference a year makes! Toilet paper is once again back on the shelves and masks and hand sanitizer are available to all in need! We have an increasing availability of effective vaccines and we are finally seeing a light at the end of the tunnel. Although we have suffered tragic losses of life and time spent separated from loved ones in the previous year, I look forward with great hope and optimism to the coming weeks and months. I cannot help but feel this is the way the disciples felt when they met Jesus after His resurrection. After the dark and hopeless experience of the His passion and crucifixion, they experienced the gift of His resurrection. The gift of the forgiveness of sins opening the way to salvation. It is easy to find hope and joy in the promises of the risen Christ and I am looking forward to a rewarding and beautiful Easter season full of joy and anticipation for the future!

May the peace of Christ be with you all.
Have a joyful Easter!
Deacon Mark

EASTER

HIDDEN EGGS & BASKETS

On this weekend, Sunday morning to be exact, a large number of children around the world have woken up to a basket filled with goodies, and eggs hidden around. As Catholics, we know that Easter is so much more than a basket of candy and hidden eggs. Easter is about Jesus being raised from the dead and fulfilling the prophecies. It is about God once and for all time divinely revealing Himself to us, redeeming us from original sin. And as baptized Christians, we cooperate in our redemption each and every time we say yes to God's will in our life; each time we love our neighbor; or reject sin and evil.

You see, God desires an eternal relationship with us and He loves us so much that He gave his only son, a part of Himself, to not only dwell among us but to free us from the slavery of death. Jesus was born, proclaimed His Father's house, and died on the wood of the cross so that we might be forgiven and have eternal life.

We have been given an Easter basket so full of grace and blessings that it is spills over. And this "basket" while limited by our human understanding is refilled each and every time we participate in the sacraments, but especially the sacrament of Holy Communion. It is our human desire, even if we do not recognize it for what it is, to be united with God. And it is there that we find the joy that our hearts long for.

Friends, Christ is risen! The tomb is empty! And we are NOT alone!

We have received the Paraclete, the Holy Spirit, so that we might be strengthened in our day to day. So that we might grow in relationship with God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. It is like the hidden Easter egg. If we fail to observe our surroundings and invite God into our hearts the tomb will remain an empty place of sorrow and our "eggs" will not be found. But if we allow the Holy Spirit to fill our heart, mind, body, and soul we will be overcome by the joy that only God can provide. And Christ will be hidden from us no more.

These next seven Sundays of the Eastertide let us continue to be filled with Christ's joy and grow in relationship with Him.

HE HAS RISEN INDEED! ALLELUIA!

Happy Easter!

Religious Education Director

REGATHERING GUIDELINES

All Saints Parishioners:

Per the Diocese and All Saints Regathering Guidelines – Weekday Masses are at 8:00 AM on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday; Saturday Mass is at 4:00 PM; and Sunday Mass is at 9:00 AM. These Mass times and the guidelines below are subject to change and will be in effect as we continue in Phase 3, or until an escalation of the COVID-19 outbreak warrants a return to the state of all public Masses being suspended. Following are the guidelines:

1. Participating at Mass is a health risk for any individual. For those who do not attend Mass during this time God's infinite grace and mercy remain abundantly available.
2. Parishioners should be reminded often that the Sunday obligation remains suspended, and that vulnerable individuals, individuals who live with vulnerable individuals, and those who are ill or have been exposed to someone with COVID-19 like symptoms should not attend Mass. For now, livestreaming will still be made available.
3. Parishioners are encouraged to cultivate an occasional presence when attending Mass, and not a daily presence. This is an act of charity toward others, as it can allow more people to participate in weekday Mass and better serves the common good.
4. Parishioners should only attend Mass at their own parish. Traveling to neighboring parishes creates a greater health risk for all and hinders the Diocese in its efforts to make the sacraments publicly available in the safest way possible.
5. Social distancing must be maintained throughout the Mass. This includes a six feet social distance between one family/household unit and another.
6. Parishioners are encouraged to enter and exit the parish in a staggered fashion, to avoid a bottleneck or congregating before or after Mass.
7. During the reception of Holy Communion, a single communion line should be formed with at least six feet of distance between family units, including when leaving the pews. Holy Communion will only be received on the hand and not on the tongue. When approaching Holy Communion, parishioners are to bow, after responding with the usual "Amen", place their hands out in the usual manner to receive the Host, step to the side, pull their mask down, place the Host in their mouth, and pull the mask back up. The consecrated Host must NOT be taken back to the pew to be consumed. Distribution from the chalice of wine to the assembly is absolutely forbidden.
8. Parishioners are encouraged to take their temperature and should not be ill before travelling to Mass. When attending Mass, parishioners over the age of five, who do not have a medical or psychological condition prohibiting mask use, are required to wear a mask during Mass and while in the building.
9. No basket will be passed during Mass for collection. A common depository such as a basket at each door and/or use of the lock-box outside the gathering space door will be made available for parishioners' offerings to be placed as they arrive or depart Mass.
10. No bulletins will be handed out after Mass. Bulletins are available on the All Saints website.
No one should accept materials from others at any time.
12. Holy water fonts will remain empty until after the Easter Vigil.
13. All hymnals have been removed from all pews.
14. No one should shake hands, exchange hugs, or in any way make physical contact with each other. There are to be no social gatherings whatsoever after Mass.
15. The church, gathering space, and restrooms will be cleaned and disinfected prior to each Mass using directives provided by the Diocese via CDC guidelines.

DIOCESAN PROTOCOL ADJUSTMENT EFFECTIVE APRIL 1, 2021

Per the Diocese, beginning Holy Thursday, April 1, 2021, our social distancing policies will be adjusted so that every pew may be used for seating. Households are still asked to observe social distancing between other households within each pew. Additionally, baptismal fonts and holy water fonts will be refilled (appropriately, after the Easter Vigil), and a choir of four-five singers are now permitted. While we are relaxing the above practices, we are also extending the mask requirement for the foreseeable future; as the unknown factors are elucidated, it will again be reviewed. With the exception of these adjustments, all other mitigation practices remain in place. These adjustments are in response to our improving public health situation and are based on consultation with our local medical experts. The Diocese continues monitoring the public health situation on a daily basis, and if conditions continue to remain stable or improve, relaxations will continue in an incremental way. Alternatively, if the conditions significantly deteriorate, we may find it necessary to reinstate previous guidelines.
