

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Forgive and forget and get reconciled: In the light of eternity and the shortness of our span of life, harboring old grudges is pointless. Neighbors who remained hostile and unforgiving till their death remain buried a short distance from one another in the same cemetery. Our ability to forgive is the measure of the depth of our Christianity. The forgiveness that we offer others is the indispensable condition which makes it possible for us to receive God's forgiveness and to meaningfully pray: "Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us."

Let us remember St. Francis Assisi's prayer: "It is in pardoning that we are pardoned." Our failure to offer pardon means that we have forgotten God's goodness or have not fully appreciated the unconditional forgiveness we have received from Him. What God expects from us is limitless forgiving and an ability to gloss over faults and to keep on loving even in the face of insults.

All of us, of course, have a choice. It's a choice to forgive. It's not a feeling. And we have to make that act of the will if we're not going to be called wicked by God. So, we need to think of anyone who has hurt us and in our heart and say Jesus I forgive them, and I ask you to forgive them. Because remember when you and I participate in the holy before receiving communion, we will say, The Lord's Prayer and we will say to Almighty God "forgive me, my trespasses as I forgive those who trespass against me." So, we will tell God at every mass God if I forgive, then forgive me. If I will not forgive then do not forgive me. Let's be people who forgive. May each of us know His love, everyday and forever....
