Our MISSION: provide people of God pastoral care & spiritual nourishment to proclaim the GOOD NEWS OF CHRIST in their lives.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

The Parable of Workers in the Vineyard” or “the Parable of the Generous Landlord“ suggests that we can't work our way into heaven. We can never do enough good in this life to earn our everlasting reward. We must learn that we're all in need of God's grace and forgiveness. In God's kingdom, we can be grateful that He chooses to be generous. What we really deserve for our sins is death. We learn also that in God's service we have different tasks to perform. No matter how menial the task, however, we all get paid the same amount. In God's eyes, we are all equal. At the end of the day, we are all paid the right amount. In the church, we're all co-workers and hence we all receive exactly what is right, from a God who is notoriously generous and lavish.

What really bothers us in the parable is not the treatment of the late coming workers, but our own potential treatment by God since we feel that we are like the ones who worked in God's vineyard all day. Perhaps we are asking "Is it fair that we, the hard-working Christians, are going to be treated like these workers? Is the man who lives a life of sin but who converts on his death bed going to get the same reward that we receive? Surely we must warrant at least a higher ranking in heaven on a cloud with the Apostle Paul or Moses or one of the saints! But the parable tells us that our heavenly reward is not something we earn but rather a free gift. God made His rewards available to all through faith in Christ Jesus. Is it fair that God gives his grace to all? Fair is the wrong word. God does not deal with us fairly and it is a good thing. We should be thankful God did not give us what we deserved. The word we are looking for is grace. The question should be "What is grace?" And the answer is, it is that "undeserved love" that God has shown us through the death and resurrection of His only Son Jesus Christ.

CLUSTER ANNOUNCEMENTS

Catechetical Sunday

"Religious Ed. Coordinators:

Celine Boisvert and Deacon Mike Ryan

This year, the Church will celebrate Catechetical Sunday on September 20, 2020. The 2020 theme is "I received from the Lord what I also handed onto you." Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel.

Teachers and subs: Warren Wagner, Madeline Smith, Patti Bergeron, Lupe Goin, Sheri Weidman, Krista Haus, Tina Coss, Jan Hoganson. Elna Korinke and Sue Thompson.

A very special thank you to all our Teachers!!!

Religious Education (Faith Formation)

The classes will start next month. We are not sure just how and where but books are ordered and will be ready to resume once we know how to proceed safely. Pray for our children and teachers.
