PENTECOST
dwell within us

June 9, 2019

Breathe into me
Holy Spirit
That my thoughts may all be holy.
Move in me Holy Spirit
That my work too,
may be holy.
Attract my heart
Holy Spirit,
That I may love only what is holy.
Strengthen me Holy Spirit, that I may defend all that is holy.
Protect me Holy Spirit that I may always be holy.
~St. Augustine

Fr. Joe’s Jottings

This Monday at Oahe Downstream Recreation Area there will be the prayer at the beginning of the day of all those boats and occupants who signed up to fish at the Bishop’s Charity Tournament.

Later in the day there will be the weighing of the catch followed by Mass with Bishop Swain. A Prime Rib picnic follows for those who have purchased a ticket for the evening events. There will be five seminarians here to share about their journey through the academic process of priestly formation.

This is a great opportunity for everyone to support our future priests financially and spiritually. Please bring the whole family and any guests as well. We have a local committee organizing the event under the leadership of Galen Jordre. There is a display in the foyer. Also the Bishop’s Fishing Charity Tournament is hosted in conjunction with our own Pierre Catholic Foundation.

The members are J.C. Carpenter, Nicole Barnett, Tiffany Sanchez, Mike Wisegram, Darlene Braun and Travis Schaffer. As you may remember they are in a partnership with the Catholic Community Foundation for Eastern South Dakota.

It should go without saying that the most important contribution that anyone can give is the spiritual support of a commitment of prayer. So all day on Monday June 10 there will be people praying in the church before the tabernacle for God to call young people to the various vocations of His choice. “It was not you who chose me but I chose you.”

As I stated last Sunday each of us have received a call and we are to respond accordingly. Bless you for your acceptance and embracing God’s plan for you.

St. Kateri Tekakwitha

All was open in an Indian village, and the priests had to pray publicly. When Kateri saw the missionaries in prayer, it irresistibly attracted her. Her own prayer then united her life to God and she lived in active Union with God.

St. Kateri, Pray for Us!

Summer slide, loosing learning over the summer, is real. Last week I wrote about Reading and I pray some of you have already started measures in your home to keep your young people reading. Research shows skills lost in Math are even greater than in Reading.

It is wise to incorporate Math into daily conversations so students see the relevance and importance of math in their daily lives. Get your children to help with meals. Ask questions such as, “What if I do not have a one-cup measuring tool?” Let them make slime, playdough, and Rice Krispy bars!

Talk about gas prices and the cost for X number of gallons. While shopping find the unit price and talk about how finding the unit price helps find the best deal. Estimate the total amount of the purchases.

Check out Math apps such as Bedtime Math, Math Learning Center, Khan Academy, Geometry Pad, the list goes on and on.

Read books dealing with Math such as The Doorbell Rang, 100 Hungry Ants, Pigs Will be Pigs, and this list goes on and on also. Finally, play board games, Monopoly, Yahtzee, War, Sequence, Connect Four, and on and on.

Out of the mouth of Babes:
The teacher asked her students "How do you want to be remembered?" Most students said, something along the lines of becoming famous such as, a professional athlete, a comedian or an actor. But, one little girl proudly stated, "I want to be remembered as a faithful follower of Christ!"

Statements like this is what make Catholic educators keep coming back year after year and why families should enroll their children!

June 13 St. Anthony of Padua

Born in 1195, Anthony joined the Franciscans, went to Africa as a Missionary, became ill, returned to Tuscany, taught from a precious book of Psalms (which was stolen), and after Anthony prayed, it was returned. He met St. Francis of Assisi, had the ability to teach great concepts to the uneducated, died at age 35 and is a doctor of the church.

St. Barnabas, Apostle
June 11

Barnabas, a Jew of Cyprus, comes as close as anyone outside the Twelve to being a full-fledged apostle. He was closely associated with Saint Paul—he introduced Paul to Peter and the other apostles—and served as a kind of mediator between the former persecutor and the still suspicious Jewish Christians.
