Fr. Joe’s Jottings

Continuing on my theme of summer, I wish to address the constant need for volunteers for every ministry of the altar. He who sings prays twice is an ancient cliché. In the documents of liturgy from the church, they always speak of the highest priority of music within all celebrations. Can you imagine saying happy birthday song rather than singing it? Can you imagine reciting all the parts of the Mass without singing any of them? The answers to both questions would be “NO.” So there is a need for more music volunteers – instrumental or vocal!

Imagine going to someone’s house and no one was there to greet you! Would you feel like you should enter? Of course not – you would most likely turn and leave. So why do we not expect someone to be there to welcome us into the church. The faith community needs to be welcoming with an adequate number of ushers.

The celebration of the Eucharist is about Jesus giving us His Body and Blood. When we go to that celebration we are to give our time, talent and treasure. What greater joy can there be then to proclaim the Word of God or to distribute the Precious Species as a minister of the Eucharist?

One of my great memories of childhood is serving at the altar dressed as an acolyte. Many priests share that same recollection. There are many ways to volunteer in addition to the ministries at Mass but we are in need of you to help with the Holy Mass.

So with the great Day of Independence may all of us step up to the challenge. Our nation was built upon the brave who served in many ways to make the United States of America. Thank you for your volunteerism!

“First, we tamed God.” We made Him into our image,” says Fr. Bill Peckman, from his June 24 article on Why Catholics are Leaving the Faith.
“We turned him into a kindly and ineffectual therapist whose chief job is to enable our every behavior and pat us on the back for rebelling against Him. With such a tamed God, there was no need to focus on Him. The concept of personal sin went away and became social sin or societal sin. With this move, confession went to the wayside and was replaced with a morphed view of social justice.
We tamed the devil and the demonic. They became fodder for occult parlor games, slasher films, and as a poster boy for secular humanism. When we tamed him, there was no need to be any more afraid of him than we are of carnival rides.

In liturgy, the focus of Mass went from God to humanity. We came to affirm ourselves and not worship God. We went for what was comfortable and unchallenging.
In fact, things were so unchallenging that Mass itself became a dreary exercise in self-affirmation. If you want to lose people, especially men, then this is the correct route to take.

The more we experimented with the Mass, changed the Mass, gutted the challenge from preaching into therapeutic moralism, filled it with songs about us, the more and more people wandered out.”

The parish has a Tuition Assistance Fund designed to assist families with tuition. When you donate to this fund you can give a child the gift of a Catholic education. Donations can even be directed to specific children if you so choose. Your gift can be put in the collection basket by earmarking it SJS tuition assistance. Thanks in advance. No gift is too small to make a big difference.

July 8 - July 11 the parish is sponsoring Totus Tuus, a Catholic youth program dedicated to sharing the Gospel and promoting the Catholic faith through catechesis, evangelization, and Christian witness. Totus Tuus was Saint John Paul II's apostolic motto. It is a Latin phrase meaning "totally yours". This is an experience your children should not miss. July 11 - St. Benedict

Benedict’s ‘Rule’, which gradually developed over time, prescribed a life of liturgical prayer, study, manual labor, and living together in community under an abbot. Benedictine asceticism is known for its moderation. It’s charity has always shown concern for the people in their surrounding areas.
