Happy Thanksgiving! And...Happy New Year!

A couple weekends ago, Deacon Grant gave a homily on the three "T's". Instead of the traditional Time, Talent & Treasure, he gave it a twist and talked about Time, Tongue, and Thanksgiving. This really struck me. His words got me thinking about how have I spent my time with Jesus lately? Have I rushed in and out of Mass? Do I take time out of my day to reflect on His love for me? Have I come to Him in only times of need, or do I run to Him in Thanksgiving too? Has my tongue brought the love of Christ to others through conversation, or has it been quick to judge and snap? Have I spoken up for those in need or marginalized? And lastly, what am I thankful for? Do I take for granted what I have been given, or do I truly recognize that all are gifts given from God?

Today we begin a new liturgical year. A new beginning! A fresh start! A renewed focus on the birth and 2nd coming of Christ! A time to reflect over the last year and give thanks for what we have received. As a parish and school, we have so many reasons to give thanks.

Expounding on the last "T" from Deacon's homily, I am thankful for the installation of Bishop Felton to lead our Diocese, for the opportunity to work, pray and learn from Fr. Gabriel and Fr. Jeremy, and for each one of you—for your continued prayers and financial support to the Parish and School. I am thankful for the opportunity to welcome Fr. Daniel and Fr. Trevor to our parish and to get to know them better. I am thankful for our AMAZING parish and school staff! They all go above and beyond their job descriptions to keep this place running, clean, and ready. You never know when one person maybe doing their job, and the jobs of several others, because of being short staffed. Please continue to keep parish and school staff in your daily prayers—we feel them and are eternally grateful!

To our Parish and Finance Councils, Building and Grounds Commission, and School Advisory Board—Thank you for your service to our parish and school. Your commitment to our future is appreciated. To all our volunteers, musicians, and choirs, thank you for giving of your time and talents, too. I recently learned that one of our council members has been serving since Fr. O'Donnell was here! Talk about willingly giving of your time!! None of our councils are "until death do us part", so if you feel called to give of your time and expertise in one of these areas, please contact Fr. Daniel or myself.

I'd be remiss if I didn't thank my family—always being there as a sounding board or reassuring me that God will take care of it. And last, but certainly not least, I thank God for allowing me to serve Him in this capacity; for showing me the way, even when there seemed no path to follow.

As a new year begins, look into how you can use your time, talent and treasure to serve the Lord.

I wish you a Happy Thanksgiving and a blessed Advent!

God bless, Susie Marchetti, Business Manager

Please check expiration dates—no expired goods. Please place items in the wooden boxes at the Church main entrance or bring them to the Parish Office.

Pro-Life Corner: "Having received the gift of the Gospel of Life, we are the people of life and a people for life. It is our duty to proclaim the Gospel of Life to the world. To proclaim Jesus is to proclaim life itself. Gratitude and joy at the incomparable dignity of the human person impel us to bring the Gospel of life to the hearts of all people and make it penetrate every part of society."

St. John Damascene | Feast Day December 4

St. John Damascene (676 -749) was the son of the chief of the revenue department in the city of Damascus. Through his father, he received a classical and theological education and attempted to follow in his footsteps by serving in a government position. However, the Lord was calling him to a different life, and a few years later he resigned from his position and went to the Monastery of St. Sabas, where he wrote books and composed hymns along with his adopted brother, Cosmas.

St. John Damascene is best known for his writings against the iconoclasts, who opposed the veneration of images; his treatise, Exposition of the Orthodox Faith, a summary of the Greek Fathers; and his work as a poet, one of the two greatest of the Eastern Church. His devotion to the Blessed Mother and his sermons on her feasts are well known. ©LPi

1st Sunday of Advent

Blessed first Sunday in Advent to each of you!

Advent and Lent are the two penitential seasons of the church year. However, Advent is a season in anticipation of the birth of Christ in time. Now, what is meant by "the birth of Christ in time"? Our four Sundays of Advent are not just Sundays in preparation for the birth of a child destined to become the Savior of the nations, but the birth of a child every day in the hearts of every Christian and the future return of the second coming in time where everything will be taken back by our God.

In today's Gospel, for some this reading might strike fear into their hearts: "...perplexed by the roaring of the sea and the waves. People will die of fright." Even today, we hear about doomsday sayers professing the end of the world on a particular date. To be sure, the end of the world will come! However, we truly do not know the time. Only God knows when God will call everything to return to him.

In the final lines of today's Gospel we are told to "be vigilant at all times and pray that you have the strength to escape the tribulations that are imminent."

This first Sunday in the season of Advent is a time for us to joyfully await the coming of Christ for the first time, at birth; for the second time, into our everyday lives; and looking forward to the last time when he will come to take all of creation back to his Father. @LPi
