Compliments of BLESSED SACRAMENT PARISH

A version of this article will appear in the Mesabi Tribune since this week it is my turn to write the clergy article:

“What causes wars, and what causes fighting among you? Is it not your passions that are at war in your members? You desire and do not have; so you kill. And you covet and cannot obtain; so you fight and wage war. You do not have, because you do not ask. You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions.” (Letter of James 4:1-3).

No wonder, then, that the opening prayer of Mass for Ash Wednesday points out the battle in which we live: “Grant, O Lord, that we may begin with holy fasting this campaign of Christian service, so that, as we take up battles against spiritual evils, we may be armed with the weapons of self-restraint.” Likened to a military campaign, our spiritual fight has real-world consequences. The weapons of self-restraint tame the forces that deal destruction: “You desire and you do not have, so you kill. And you covet...so you wage war.” This danger is not just metaphorical, as we see in our own day.

Only life in the Spirit can save us. The satisfying riches of God, poured out for us in the Holy Spirit, know no limits. However, our passions are so often focused on that which is finite, and we default to competition. If one party possesses the good – this produce, this particular house, this particular country and its territory and minerals - no other party can enjoy that same good at the same time in the same manner. Even the goods of reputation and status are limited. Thus the temptation to war. On the other hand, the same spiritual treasure can belong in its entirety to all people and at the same time to each, without any disturbance of the peace between them, says St. Augustine. If material goods, the more they are sought for their own sake, cause disunion among people, spiritual goods unite people more closely in proportion as they are more greatly loved. Perhaps we see hints of this as so much of the world rallies together right now, even willing to bear some economic cost, in what may be a shared sense of justice. History shows too, that when our shared riches are the love of Christ, even enemies can become friends. While the future St. Paul sanctioned the brutal execution of St. Stephen, Stephen prayed fervently for his persecutor to share Jesus’ love one day. It was not long before Saul was struck with love and both were united in the communion of saints. The more we relish the goods of the Spirit, the more we will be united in peace.

If this focus on the Spirit sounds naïve, perhaps we can review the life of the 20th century and see the naivete of a non-spiritual perspective, presuming that some shared hope in humanity or progress would breed peace. What century wielded more destruction than the last? Today the spiritual battle is urgent for each of us. We need to be prepared for whatever may come. Fasting moderates our cravings; almsgiving addresses our itch to grasp and take and satisfy self; prayer opens us to the generous stream of spiritual goods the Lord pours forth. Many of us also relish the gift of the Eucharist, the extraordinary food to satisfy our cravings and unite us to Christ when received in faith. Since Christ does not ration the Spirit, our share in divine riches is only limited by our resistance to receive them. So, we take up the weapons of prayer and self-restraint, opening to the riches of the Spirit, purifying the passions that cause war in our lives.

God Bless, Fr. Daniel

Pro-Life Corner: “We are facing an enormous and dramatic clash between good and evil, death and life, the ‘culture of death’ and the ‘culture of life’. We find ourselves not only ‘faced with’ but necessarily ‘in the midst of this conflict: we are all involved and we all share in it, with the inescapable responsibility of choosing to be unconditionally pro-life” (The Gospel of Life 28).

Lenten Retreat March 25th and 26th

“Simple and Ordinary with Great Love is Extraordinary” Please join us for a spiritually guided retreat focusing on the works of St. Therese of Lisieux and St Faustina. On Friday evening, reflection will be on the Annunciation. During this retreat, we will be reflecting on the great love and obedience to God that these Saints shared alike and how their simple ways were extraordinary in the eyes of God. This is a great opportunity during your Lenten journey for prayer, adoration, confession, and fellowship.

Retreat begins Friday evening at 5:30pm with dinner and ends at 9:30pm. We will reconvene Saturday morning at 8am with breakfast and concluding with the 4:15 Mass. Cost is $20 which includes meals, materials and a St Therese book. Please call the parish office to register or with questions. For planning purposes, please register by March 22nd.

Although our actions are small and ordinary in themselves because of love they become great and powerful before God. -

Watch "The Chosen", enjoy a meal, and have friendly discussion.

The Chosen is a television drama based on the life of Jesus of Nazareth, created, directed and co-written by American filmmaker Dallas Jenkins. It is the first multi-season series about the life of Jesus, and season one was the top crowd-funded TV series or film project of all time. The series' creators stated that they had hoped to distinguish the new series from previous portrayals of Jesus by crafting a multi-season, episode-based story. The series portrays Jesus "through the eyes of those who met him". -Wikipedia
