Love
with God's Love

7th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Of all the things Jesus says which seem totally bat-crazy, this one might take the cake: “But I say to you, love your enemies, and pray for those who persecute you.” An enemy is someone who desires the destruction of you, your projects, or those you care about. To love and pray for them is to want their health, strength, and flourishing. But if they thrive, they are more likely to hurt you and others. So, aren't you indirectly willing your own destruction, or that of your friends? If you doubt that this problem is embedded in this teaching, when was the last time you actually prayed honestly for the people you really hate?

How can we solve this riddle so we might actually live this command? Recall that enemy-love is the surest sign that you love someone with God's love, and not with indirect egotism. After all, if my love for my enemy ends up hurting me or my loved ones, it can't be for me. Enemy-love costs more because there are no tit-for-tats. No reciprocity — just loved poured out, and often pain in return. That's why it is so precious and rare. “What is unusual about that?” asks the Lord about love for our friends. Jesus wants us to experience the unusual love which only comes from him.

When Jesus was being killed on the cross, he was loving his executioners. In fact, he was holding them in being as they nailed him to the cross. He loved those who were spiritually piercing his Mother's heart, while they were doing it. And when he rose from the dead, he showed us that this kind of love is always worth it. It's stronger than death. Real love is unusual. — Father John Muir ©LPI

Pro-Life Corner: “We often assume parenthood happens easily after ‘I do,’ but for many married couples, it does not. For some, the joy of conception never happens. Others suffer repeated miscarriages. Still others experience secondary infertility... If you experience difficulty bringing a child into your family, know that you are not alone. God is with you, and his Church desires to walk with you... God has a beautiful plan for your life as a married couple.”

What is the purpose of life? What do we believe and why? How can I pray? The catechism is a rich tapestry of lessons for life. As Fr. Mike's podcast becomes quite a 'thing', some folks were asking for a chance to dive deeper, ask questions, and discuss.

We will hold the Catechism in a Year Confab twice per month, as able. If you like well-prepared answers, send questions ahead of time to fr.daniel.weiske@duluthcatholic.org. We will generally meet the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month. Watch the parish calendar for specifics. Show up sporadically, show up every time. It doesn't matter.

Find the 15-minute episodes on most podcast platforms or <https://youtu.be/OnWsRYVMm5c> YouTube.

We hope to see you there!

Honored from Above, On Fire with Love

Broken relationships and age-old hurts kick joy beyond our grasp. Taunted by our weakness and haunted by our hurts, we stumble through the darkness of despair, frustration and failure. Yet God is near. Just as the Spirit of God brought order out of chaos at the world's creation, so the Spirit brings healing, hope and joy to each one of us.

Our retreat team from Transformed by Love will be back!

This series of talks will equip you to prioritize and understand relationships, to understand your true identity, and to prepare you to live out your mission. Please join us, invite your family and friends. Get your questions answered. This is a life changing opportunity. We look forward to journeying with you.
