BAPTISM

Please call the parish to make arrangements. A preparation class is required for the baptism of a first or second child.

MARRIAGE PREPARATION

Please contact the Parish well in advance. Interview and preparation required.

RCIA: Rite of the Presentation of the Nicene Creed

- The Nicene Creed will be presented to our candidates at the 5 PM Mass on March 6. The Creed is recited by the faithful at every Sunday Mass and summarizes what we believe as Catholics. This Presentation Rite symbolizes that our parish community is passing on and sharing the beliefs of our Catholic faith with them, so that those about to fully join our Catholic family embrace and treasure these venerable words as we do. Please include our RCIA candidates in your Lenten prayers.

Stations of the Cross: Stations of the Cross are prayed Fridays during Lent at 5:30 PM at the Cathedral and after the noon Mass on Wednesdays at St. Mary Star of the Sea. The Stations at the Cathedral are livestreamed.

Cathedral Saturday Morning Rosary– We are looking for volunteer groups to recite the 10 AM Rosary on Saturdays at the Cathedral during Lent. This is a wonderful opportunity for a family, friends, or classmates to lead the Rosary as a group. Everyone is welcome! To sign up or for more information, please call Tricia 218-393-9089.

Adoration and Chaplet of Divine Mercy at St. Mary Star of the Sea: Every Friday we will have Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament right after the noon Mass with Adoration until 3 PM. At 3 PM, we will recite the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, followed by Benediction. We are looking for regular adorers from about 12:30 PM to 3 PM. To sign up to be added to the schedule, please call Rebecca at 218-722-3078 or click the link in the weekly Cathedral newsletter.

Consecration to St. Joseph: On Friday March 19, the Solemnity of St. Joseph, there will be a group consecration at the Cathedral after the Stations of the Cross. We will be reciting the Consecration together and you will be able to sign and date your consecration in front of the image of St. Joseph. If you are participating from home through the livestream, we will also have a certificate available to pick up in the office. So we know how many certificates to obtain, please contact the office at 218-728-3646 or fill out the form found in the newsletter. St. Joseph, pray for us!

Holy Land Craft Sale Next Weekend: Representatives from Catholic Bethlehem Christian Families will be with us next weekend March 13 & 14 to ask for your help and blessing for the native people of the Holy Land in Bethlehem. Sixty years ago, these families made up 18% of the population, but due to recent events in the Middle East, they have faced devastating economic strain, and their population has decreased to less than 2%. These families rely on the income from their religious hand carved olive wood artifacts, so they have come to the USA to try to help support these families by bringing their artifacts here to sell. All proceeds from sales will be sent back to the families of the Holy Land so that they may keep their homes and provide for their families. Please visit the Holy Land Craft Sales tables in the Social Hall after Mass this weekend and consider supporting their cause.

Daily Lenten Message! Like and follow the Cathedral of Our Lady on Facebook @DLHCathedral. Fr. Tony, Fr. Matt and Fr. Charlie are posting reflections every day during Lent on various aspects of Lent and the faith. Don't miss out!

Parish Reflections: In the book of Exodus, the Israelites are in an unfamiliar place facing an uncertain future. They are distrustful of the Lord and they are thirsty. The desert, then as now, gets pretty hot. They complain. But the Lord, loving Father, knows what they need. He tells Moses to strike a rock and out gushes life-giving water, plenty enough for those thousands to drink and be refreshed. Like the Israelites, we are in new territory. We have fears about the future, and ask, as they did, "Is the Lord among us or not?". Perhaps we are between the desert on one hand and thirst on the other, between ill-health and no cure, between unemployment and no one hiring, between enforced solitude and loneliness, and we feel heart-broken. And we complain which is okay. The Lord wants to know our hearts. But that life-giving water is there somewhere. What is the Lord's gift to you in this moment? Trust it is there and find it. You'll smile with recognition at the Lord's love for you.

The pandemic has taught me this great lesson: hold on to trust in the Lord. He knows us, loves us and gives us what we need.

-Margo Philbin, SMSS Parish

We will be publishing weekly reflections from our parish members. If you have thoughts or writings you would like to share, please email anne.hoeksema@duluthcatholic.org.

A MESSAGE FROM FATHER CHARLIE FRIEBOHLE

We can make many excuses not to go to confession whether it has been a couple weeks, 60 years, or anywhere in-between. We can tell ourselves that our sins are not that bad, the priest will think I am a horrible person, or I just want to tell my sins to God instead of a priest, to name just a few. But by not going to confession, we are missing out on the beautiful gift of God's love and mercy. Every time we go to confession, we are forgiven of the guilt of our sins, and are increased in sanctifying grace. The devil wants us to stay in the darkness of sin and does not want us to experience the love and light of God.

Going to confession can be an intimidating thing, even if we have gone hundreds of times. To help combat this we can do a few things. Firstly, we can know that this is a sacrament of mercy, not a sacrament of shame. Jesus wants us to tell him our sins through the priest, so that he can free us from our sins no matter how small or large they are. The priest is there to be the mediator of God's mercy for us, he is not there to say "you are a bad person because you sin." The priest loves you, and wants you to be freed from your sins.

Secondly, we need to prepare ourselves before going to confession. Think about how long it has been since your last confession, and then find a good examination of conscience. Thoroughly go through it to see where you have sinned. Name the sins for what they are, and estimate how many times you have committed that sin or how frequently you fall into that sin.

Thirdly, go to confession. If you are unsure of what to do, just tell the priest, and he will help you through step by step. There are multiple regular opportunities for confession at the Cathedral, Star of the Sea and other churches around Duluth. We will also be offering extra confession times beginning on Palm Sunday and running through Holy Week.

Once you have gone to confession, don't forget to thank God for His wonderful mercy. The grace of God we receive from this sacrament is needed for whatever our vocation is. Let us not put off this extraordinary gift and let us allow it to be a regular devotion in our life.

3RD SUNDAY OF LENT

Third Sunday of Lent
March 7, 2021

Faith Formation News: For many households, spring is a time for cleaning. The house has been closed up all winter and needs fresh air. We clean, donate, or throw out that which we no longer need. We also clean or put away that which we will not need until next winter. We open the windows to let the sun and clean air in. As the snow melts and the spring plants start to grow, we wash away the winter grit and grime. Like nature, we try and start the season fresh and renewed. Cleaning, however, is not always fun. It takes hard work. It is dirty, and smelly. But it is necessary, the end result is always more satisfying than where we started.

Lent can be a time of spiritual spring cleaning. This week's Gospel helps us to remember that our spiritual lives need a freshening up from time to time. Sometimes we need to let go of past hurt in our lives and forgive those who have hurt us. Sometimes we need to remove obstacles that are standing in our way of having a better relationship with God. Sometimes we need to pray more or differently in order to let the "fresh air" of God's grace into our lives.

Remember the three pillars of our Lenten journey: almsgiving, prayer, and fasting. These three practices are the perfect way to begin our spiritual spring cleaning. How are your Lenten promises going? Have you been successful with them? Has it been difficult for you? If necessary, how can you recommit yourself to your Lenten promises?

It is not too late to participate in Lenten opportunities in your parish. Join a book study, attend Stations of the Cross as a family, partake in the Sacrament of Confession. Make the most of the next 4 weeks of Lent.

Next week faith formation class is Wednesday, March 10th when our middle school and high school students meet. Class is from 7 PM – 8:30 PM. Middle school will meet at St. John's and high school will meet at the Cathedral. We will start our night with Stations of the Cross. Families are encouraged to attend with your child.
