Holy Land Craft Sale: Representatives from Catholic Bethlehem Christian Families will be with us next weekend, February 12-13 to ask for your help and blessing for the native people of the Holy Land in Bethlehem. These families rely on the income from their religious hand carved olive wood artifacts, so they have come to the USA to try to help support these families by bringing their artifacts here to sell. All proceeds from sales will be sent back to the families of the Holy Land so that they may keep their homes and provide for their families. Please visit the Holy Land Craft Sales tables after Mass and consider supporting their cause.

Calling all prayer warriors! We are looking for parishioners and parents to come intercede for the youth in our faith formation program. Eucharistic Adoration will be available each Wednesday evening beginning January 19th at the Cathedral from 7 - 8:30 pm during the middle and high school faith formation program. We invite you to come pray for a few minutes or this whole time on behalf of our students. Adoration will be available each week there is faith formation.

NOTE: Due to Liturgical Minister Training, there will not be Adoration Wednesday evening this week.

Training for New and Current Liturgical Ministers this week! Training for all Lectors, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion and Altar Servers is scheduled for Monday and Wednesday this week. This training is required for all current and new Lectors, EMHCs and Altar Servers to ensure we have standardization for all the Masses. Dates and times for the Cathedral are as follows:

Lectors on Wednesday, 2/9 from 6pm-7pm
EMHCs on Wednesday, 2/9 from 7pm-8pm

Director of Relational & Youth Ministry: East Duluth Catholic Faith Formation, a collaborative effort of the parishes in East Duluth, is accepting applications for the Director of Relational and Youth Ministry for 6th – 12th grade students. This is a part-time position with flexible hours. The director is responsible for opportunities whereby faith can be sparked and nourished through retreat experiences and other opportunities for building relationships with our young people. Please see the full job description at duluthcatholic.com. If you are interested in this position, please send a cover letter, resume and references to lauren.mccracken@duluthcatholic.org.

A MESSAGE FROM FATHER CHARLES FRIEBOHLE

St. John Bosco says, "If we want to have a good society, we must concentrate all our forces on the Christian education of the young. Experience has taught me that if we wish to sustain civil society then we should take good care of the young." As we celebrated Catholic Schools this past week, this was something that I wondered about. What impact will the students that are currently attending the Catholic schools in the Diocese of Duluth have on society?

It is always refreshing to be able to go in to the classrooms in the Catholic schools and see that the education they are receiving is not just about grades, standardized tests, or college placement, but it is most importantly about the student's relationship with God. We all naturally are seeking a relationship with God, but so often we do not know how to go about getting to know, love, and serve Him. In the Catholic schools, the students are able to do this day in and day out.

Often, we can underestimate the ability of a young person to have a relationship with God. As students ask questions in class, I can see that they truly have a desire to come to know, love and serve God. Sometimes they just ask questions out of curiosity, such as where do priests live, do they eat food, or why do you wear sandals? Other times they are asking questions that I would never be able to fully explain, such as why did God create us, why did Jesus have to die and suffer on the cross, or why are there people who do not believe in God? When I leave classrooms, I wonder what other questions the students have that go unasked.

These questions, whether they seem silly or not, point to the reality that they are searching for that knowledge and relationship with God. The more that they can grow closer in that relationship, not only is it good for them, but good for society as a whole. That relationship with God is something that all of us are working on, and the closer we get to God, the better it is for society. The beautiful thing about Catholic education is that we are helping give the youth a jump start in that relationship. I ask you to continue to support our Catholic Schools, and continue to pray that the students truly can discover their relationship with God and transform society for the better.

In Jesus and Mary,
Fr. Charlie

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FAITH FORMATION

As we grow older, we start to recognize that our close friends are those people around us that have a positive influence on our lives. Those who are like minded, those whose mission is to be a positive influence on us and others.

Our children also begin to recognize this in their peers. They will begin to see that others have the power to influence their behavior, for good or for bad. Our mission as parents is to be there to help them decipher what characteristics of their friends are that of positive influence and which ones are not.

Simon Peter was a leader, a person of influence among his peers. The Gospels describe Simon Peter as an important leader among Jesus' disciples, one who influenced many people to become followers too. We continue to speak of Peter's leadership and influence in the Church today when we call the pope the "successor of Peter." Peter was unafraid to speak his mind, yet able to take direction. He was a leader, but chose to follow Jesus so that many others may also come to follow know and follow him. These are the characteristics we should be striving for in our lives and those of our children.

At our Baptism, we are given a share in the mission of the Church, to bring people to Christ through the example and positive influence of our lives. Let us reflect on this mission as Simon Peter did and strive to live our lives accordingly.

Faith Formation continues this week with our normal class schedule along with our First Communion sacramental prep classes.
