Though we understand that snacks at times need to be brought for very young children, we also ask that you clean up, as best you can, the crumbs and such that often they tend to leave behind before you leave the pew. Many thanks!

A MESSAGE FROM FATHER ANTHONY WROBLEWSKI

Every year I invite my parishioners to really enter into Holy Week. Years ago, employers tended to be generous with time off so that their employees could attend as many Holy Week Liturgies as they could. Sadly, this isn't the case anymore. But even with these restrictions, it is very possible to enter into Holy Week fully! Most of the Liturgies occur when it's possible for most of you to attend. And even if you can't get time off on Good Friday during the day, we have added into the Holy Week calendar a Tenebrae Service on the evening of Good Friday. It is a beautiful and ancient service normally done on Good Friday. If you are able, you could attend a service earlier in the day of the Lord's Passion, and then also come to the Tenebrae where we will feature beautiful solemn readings and music.

Having lived through three years of a pandemic that I never expected to last this long, and having had Covid twice, I give thanks that most of the worst is behind us! We have much to be grateful for, so I encourage you, as always, to make this week a retreat-like experience. We had a great Mission with the folks from Transformed by Love, whereby we really focused ourselves on the healing presence of Christ. Well, our greatest healing comes from the death and Resurrection of our Savior. Let's make sure we take time to recall the events of our salvation and healing. This weekend of Palm Sunday, we hear the words: "Today we gather together to herald with the whole Church the beginning of the celebration of our Lord's Paschal Mystery, that is to say, of his Passion and Resurrection. For it was to accomplish this mystery that he entered his own city of Jerusalem. Therefore, with all faith and devotion, let us commemorate the Lord's entry into the city for our salvation, following in his footsteps, so that, being made by his grace partakers of the Cross, we may have a share also in his Resurrection and in his life."

This week, we are not just to recall the great events of our salvation, but also to live them again, and put our lives on the line for Christ, just as He did for us. But how can we unless we make time for Christ in this sacred week? So I urge you to take the time this week to enter into a sort of retreat experience. Take time each day to pray additionally. On Holy Thursday, pray with the Lord in the Garden of Gethsemane. Take time on Friday to pray with Him as He dies on the cross for you. Experience incredible music on Good Friday evening when we once again celebrate a Tenebrae Service. And celebrate His Resurrection on Easter Vigil and Easter Sunday. As we hopefully pray that we may be coming out of this crisis which we have lived, make this week holy!

In Christ & Mary Immaculate,
Fr. Tony

PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

FAITH FORMATION

Today we begin Holy Week, the days during which we journey with Jesus on his way to the cross and anticipate his Resurrection on Easter. This year on Palm Sunday, we read the Passion of Jesus as found in the Gospel of Matthew. The story of Jesus' Passion and death in Matthew's Gospel focuses particularly on the obedience of Jesus to the will of his Father. Matthew also includes many details in his Gospels' that are not found in the other Passion Gospel's. One of those details being the price paid to Judas for betraying Jesus.

There are also many different vantage points that we can reflect on in Matthew's Gospel. In the characters of Matthew's Gospel, we may find reflections of ourselves and the many ways in which we sometimes respond to Jesus. Sometimes we may be like Judas, who betrays Jesus and comes to regret it. Sometimes we may be like Peter, who denies him, or like the disciples, who fall asleep during his darkest hour. No matter who we relate to, the same is true for all of us. Jesus died so that our sins will be forgiven.

Throughout this week, we remember the depth of love that Jesus showed in offering this sacrifice for us. Jesus was obedient even unto death so that our sins would be forgiven.

As we enter into this, the holiest week of the church, let us truly remember how profound these days are. Jesus loved us so much that he freely gave up his life for us, so that we may have eternal life with him.

God Bless,

Sonya
