MARRIAGE PREPARATION

Please contact the parish office to sign up well in advance.

Please pray for our young parish members as they prepare to receive their First Communion next Sunday, May 7 at the 10:30 AM Mass!

Sunday 6 PM Mass: Just as last year, at the Cathedral we will be taking over the responsibility for the Sunday night 6 PM Mass beginning the weekend of May 14. We will be needing Liturgical Ministers such as lectors, ushers, communion ministers and sacristans. If you can help with any of these, please sign up through the weekly online newsletter, on the clipboards in the back of church, or call Greg Jung at the Cathedral parish office (218-623-5013).

Pastoral Council Nominations: Our parishes are seeking nominations for our joint Pastoral Council. We are currently seeking nominations to replace two seats (one from each parish) for a three year commitment. A confirmed, registered member in good standing of the parish may nominate him/herself. Please feel free to nominate any parishioner that you believe would be a good Pastoral Council member. Nominations will be accepted through Sunday, May 7th. A nomination review period will take place and names of two new members will be drawn from the nominees at a 10:30 AM Cathedral Mass shortly after the review period. The nomination form can be found at duluthcathedral.com or call Greg Jung at 218-623-5013.

Parish Picnic Planning: Do you enjoy planning a great celebration? If so, please consider signing up for this year's Cathedral of Our Lady and St. Mary Star of the Sea 11th Annual Parish Picnic Planning Committee. The Parish Picnic will be on Saturday, September 9th and planning is starting now. We need members for the planning committee to help make this another outstanding event. If interested, please call Greg Jung at 218-623-5013.

Join the Linen Society: The Linen Society is responsible for laundering and ironing the Altar Server black cassock and white surplice used at our celebrations of the Eucharist. This group also is responsible for making and providing the newly baptized with their Christening bib/garment. If you are interested in being a part of the Linen Society or have questions, please contact Greg Jung at 218-623-5013 or email Greg at greg.jung@duluthcatholic.org.

Free Tables: Over the years the Cathedral parish has purchased new lighter folding tables to use at the school. This means that we have a number of older, rectangular wood folding tables that we are no longer using and are giving away to our current, registered Cathedral parish members. Please be advised that they are heavy, but we want to give our parish members the first opportunity to have them. There are multiple 6 foot tables, and a few 5 foot and 3 foot tables available. If you are interested, contact Anne at the parish office at 218-623-5011 or anne.hoeksema@duluthcatholic.org to make an appointment to pick them up.

A MESSAGE FROM FATHER ANTHONY WROBLEWSKI

Next weekend some of our young people will be receiving the true Body of the Lord for the first time. I thought I would once again share with you a bit of what Pope Benedict once said to a group of people gathered who were preparing for 1st Communion:

Dear parents! I ask you to help your children to grow in faith, I ask you to accompany them on their journey towards First Communion, a journey which continues beyond that day, and to keep accompanying them as they make their way to Jesus and with Jesus. Please, go with your children to Church and take part in the Sunday Eucharistic celebration! You will see that this is not time lost; rather, it is the very thing that can keep your family truly united and centered. Sunday becomes more beautiful, the whole week becomes more beautiful, when you go to Sunday Mass together. And please, pray together at home too: at meals and before going to bed. Prayer does not only bring us nearer to God but also nearer to one another. It is a powerful source of peace and joy. Family life becomes more joyful and expansive whenever God is there and his closeness is experienced in prayer.

Dear catechists and teachers! I urge you to keep alive in the schools the search for God, for that God who in Jesus Christ has made himself visible to us. I know that in our pluralistic world it is no easy thing in schools to bring up the subject of faith. But it is hardly enough for our children and young people to learn technical knowledge and skills alone, and not the criteria that give knowledge and skill their direction and meaning. Encourage your students not only to raise questions about particular things - something good in itself - but above all to ask about the why and the wherefore of life as a whole. Help them to realize that any answers that do not finally lead to God are insufficient.

Dear priests and all who assist in parishes! I urge you to do everything possible to make the parish a "spiritual community" for people - a great family where we also experience the even greater family of the universal Church, and learn through the liturgy, through catechesis and through all the events of parish life to walk together on the way of true life.

These three places of education - the family, the school and the parish - go together, and they help us to find the way that leads to the sources of life, and truly all of us, dear children, dear parents and dear teachers, want to have "life in abundance".

In Christ & Mary Immaculate,
Fr. Tony

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

FAITH FORMATION

The fourth Sunday of Easter is often called Good Shepherd Sunday because in the Gospel reading for today, Jesus talks about what it means to be the shepherd of the sheep.

Almost everybody in Jesus' time knew about sheep and shepherding, so when Jesus explained his ideas by talking about sheep, people understood. Even though we have less experience with sheep and shepherds today in our society, we can still understand the image of Jesus as the Good Shepherd.

In the image of the Good Shepherd, we recognize that the shepherd knows and cares for his sheep, so the sheep trust him and follow him. The relationship between the sheep and their shepherd is based on familiarity. Sheep recognize his voice and will not follow a stranger.

Today we still talk about shepherds when we describe Christian leaders. Our Bishop and Priests are often referred to as our Shepherds. They, as our shepherd, know us, and we know them. By following the example of Jesus, the Good Shepherd, and by being faithful to him, they lead us to him.

Just as the shepherd calls his sheep, Jesus the Good Shepherd knows us by name, calls us, loves us and cares for us. We are the sheep. We trust and follow him. He is the gate for all of us, and there is only one way to eternal life and that way is through him.

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.
Psalm 23- 1

Our faith formation classes for the year have come to an end. Please watch your parish bulletins for summer opportunities for our youth. Please reach out to me if you have any questions.
