Jesus Christ is Risen Today!

I want to extend a warm welcome to all our parishioners, their families and guests, as we celebrate this Feast of the Resurrection of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

“Exult, let them exult, the hosts of heaven; exult, let Angel ministers of God exult; let the trumpet of salvation sound aloud our mighty King’s triumph! Be glad, let earth be glad, as glory floods her, ablaze with light from her eternal King...” These words from the Easter Proclamation (Exsultet) bring joy to our hearts and music to our ears as we begin our celebration of The Easter Vigil on Saturday evening.

The summit of our liturgical year is the Easter Triduum. The Triduum, chronologically three days, is liturgically one day. In Jewish liturgical designation, celebrations begin at sundown of the preceding day; hence Triduum starts on Holy Thursday evening and continues to sundown on Easter Sunday. (This explains why there is no evening Mass on Easter.)

On that awe-inspiring night of the Last Supper, Jesus was thinking of His final act of love while on this earth: His death on the cross. So that His followers might be able to share in His sacrifice throughout all ages, He instituted the Sacrament of His Paschal Mystery, His death and Resurrection. At His supper “under the appearances of bread and wine, Jesus offered His Body and Blood, gave them to His apostles to eat and drink and then commanded them to carry on this mystery” (Roman Missal, 55).

On Friday afternoon, Jesus offered the sacrifice of Himself which He had instituted as a sacrament on the previous night. On Saturday, the second day of the Triduum, Jesus was in a tomb. It is the day of supreme quiet, the great silence of the liturgy. The liturgy invites us to remain at the tomb of Jesus, in peaceful expectation of a brilliant future.

At the Easter Vigil, we celebrate the Mass of the Resurrection of the Lord. We break the great silence, going from darkness into the Light of Christ. We punctuate our songs and prayers with Alleluias; we rejoice in the Risen Lord. It is symbolic, that after a six weeks’ absence from our liturgy, the words, first voiced by a chorus of angels at Christmas over 2000 years ago, are once again sung at Easter: Gloria in excelsis Deo! Glory to God in the highest. Masses on Easter Sunday continue the celebration of the Lord’s Resurrection.

The Holy Feast Days of Easter and Christmas are complementary of one another. We cannot focus on one without recalling the other. One is not complete without the other. We are the recipients of the Greatest Gift that God could give – His only Son.

From His first cry in the manger in Bethlehem to His last cry on the cross of Calvary, He has given us the Gift of His undying love.

Jesus’ suffering led Him to a deeper relationship with God. Out of love, Jesus did the will of His Father that we might have new life. This is evidence of our great healing and hope. Christ came to live, to die and now He comes to rise for each of us – making our lives so very blessed and so very important. We were once dead, and now we live because JESUS CHRIST IS TRULY RISEN TODAY!

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Holy Hour and Benediction

The institution of marriage and family is under attack in our culture today. This breakdown of marriage has been devastating to families and society.

Do you know of marriages that are struggling? Families that need strengthening? Do you have loved ones who have left the faith? Please join us this Tuesday evening, April 6, at 6 pm in the church to pray for marriages, families, vocations and for those who have left the faith to return to the Sacraments. This is for the whole family. We will pray this beautiful and powerful novena together as we call on Our Lady's intercession for these and your personal intentions, and have adoration and Benediction before the Blessed Sacrament.
