Lessons in Love

As we near the end of the Easter Season, we continue our journey through Chapter 15 of John's Gospel. We see a progression as Jesus reveals Himself to us. During Lent, when Jesus was asked "Who are you?" He would skirt the issue. Then closer to the Crucifixion He stated, "I am in the Father, and He is in me." Now Jesus envelopes us in His response, "I am in you and you are in me." What a beautiful expression of Jesus' love for us.

Today we are treated to a three-fold tutorial on love. Each Reading gives us a slightly different glimpse as to what love truly is. In Acts, prior to today's Reading I, the Roman centurion Cornelius has a vision that prompts him to seek a meeting with Peter. About the same time in Poppa, Peter also has a vision about being ordered to eat unclean animals; it's meaning eludes him. Peter, a Jew, has a deep-seated aversion for Gentiles, but he accepts the invitation of Cornelius. Cornelius welcomes Peter by falling to his knees in homage. This causes Peter to protest that he is only human. During the process, however, Peter understands the meaning of his own vision.

Each man experiences a conversion: Cornelius to belief in Christ, and Peter to acceptance that Gentiles are to be welcomed in the community. He points out a truth: "God shows no partiality." True love is given without bias or reservation. God loves each of us just as we are.

The poem that is today's Reading II, 1 John 4:7-10, is sometimes chosen for weddings or funerals. It is not meant so much to instruct, as it is to draw those who hear it into a loving relationship with God. The continuation of John's letter is used for the 7th Sunday of Easter: "Beloved, if God so loved us, we also must love one another. No one has ever seen God. Yet if we love one another, God remains in us, and his love is brought to perfection in us. God is love, and whoever remains in love remains in God and God in him." (1 John 4:11-12,16)

The Gospel, John 15:9-17, continues last week's narrative in which Jesus teaches His disciples about the vine and branches: "As the Father loves me, so I also love you. Remain in my love."

John is such a perfect writer to analyze God's love for us. He was humble and never used his given name; rather he referred to himself as the beloved disciple. John was steadfast in his love for Jesus. He was one of the three disciples to witness the Transfiguration. At the Last Supper, seated to the left of Jesus, he put his head on Jesus' heart as they sat at table. He never abandoned Jesus. He went to the Garden of Gethsemane to keep watch. John stood at the foot of cross with the three women. He heard the words of Jesus on the cross: "Son, behold your Mother;" and "Mother, behold your son." He accepted the responsibility of caring for the Blessed Mother. John took her into his home at Ephesus where he cared for her during the rest of her earthly life. John never wavered in his love of Christ and His mother, Mary.

Happy Mother's Day!

Today we reflect on the three Mothers in our lives: Mary, the Mother of God; our Holy Mother Church; and, of course, the mothers with whom God has gifted our lives. For over 700 years, the Catholic Church has had the custom of dedicating the month of May to the Blessed Virgin Mary. Mary is the model for all mothers; she is also the model for the Church. At times you will hear people refer to the Church as "Holy Mother Church," a most appropriate title because what Mary did for Jesus, the Church does for us. Mary, like all mothers, carried her Baby in her womb, gave birth from her body, nourished Him, taught Him the customs of the Jewish faith, and taught Him about life.

May God bless our mothers, both living and deceased, this day! May He keep each of you in His care. May you cherish the great vocation to which each of you has been called, and your importance not only to your children, but to the entire Church.

Covid-19 Update

Dear Curé of Ars,

This past week the Johnson County Health Department lifted the mandated mask wearing in public places. This is certainly good news to some and to others who are dealing with compromised health it is a bit alarming.

As we move forward here at Curé of Ars, we would like to be respectful to all who attend. As we transition into this way of life, let us first be respectful of each other and not make this a political agenda. There are still some who are very concerned about being in public with no mask. Some of you have compromised health and others are still being very cautious until we know this virus is truly contained and behind us.

To help all we will continue to leave every other pew marked off on the left side of Church as you enter. The right side will continue to be completely open. The county has lifted the mask mandate and thus it is up to each and every person as to if you choose to wear the mask or not. The priests here at Curé of Ars will not be wearing a mask, but will have one on us at all times for those wanting to meet and feel more comfortable with the priest wearing a mask.

As we move forward, let us do so with Christian charity. This has been a crazy year, one filled with anxiety, fear and uncertainty. We are now living in the same world and things will be different and we have to move forward respecting each other and what each are comfortable doing.

Thank you for your patience in wearing your masks these past months. As we move forward, let us not forget the time we were given that allowed our lives to be at a much slower pace. As we now go forward into a more “normal” way of living, I pray we all slow down and enjoy this life and spend time with family and friends and above all with the Lord.

God bless you all,

Fr. Storey and the Curé of Ars Priests, Deacons and Religious

Sister Julie's 75th Jubilee is a time for celebration!

Please join Sister Julie at the 10:30 am Mass on May 16th where she will renew her vows with Archbishop Naumann.

Sister Julie will not be hosting a reception due to the pandemic.

Did you know Sister Julie...

- Was taught by the Sisters of St. Joseph when she was in school?
- Started praying she would become a sister when she was only a 5th grader?
- Was raised in Chicago, but left the city behind to join the Sisters of St. Joseph in Concordia, KS?
- Took her final vows in a wedding dress?
- Has two degrees in education?
- Was in Los Angeles teaching Bible school during the summer riots in Watt?
- Has been to the Vatican?
- Travelled to Medjugorje to "witness" the Marian apparitions?

Sister Julie's favorite quote....

"Doing what you love is freedom... Loving what you do is happiness."

While at Curé....

Sister Julie arrived to Curé of Ars in 1969 joining sisters of her community who had been awaiting the completion of the convent which is now used as the Parish Office.

Sister Julie left the classroom when she was appointed the Director of Religious Education at Curé of Ars.

Many students learned how to proclaim the readings at Mass under Sister Julie's guidance. She trained altar servers, too.

Her ministry at Curé changed again when she started the 'I Care...' ministry that focused on the seniors of the parish.

Sister Julie insures homebound parishioners receive weekly communion. "Relax with God" is her unique way of reaching out to seniors with a guest speaker and lunch.

As a parishioner, Sister Julie participated in Renew 2000 and Christ Renews His Parish.

Sister Julie's current ministry includes helping Fr. Storey with funerals.

Sister Julie's vocation is one of service, hospitality, and charity.

Sister taught guitar lessons.

Sister taught a weekly Line Dancing class attended by both parishioners and non-parishioners.

Spiritual Pen Pal Program

I wish to thank all of you who participated in the Easter cards to Catholic inmates. We had a wonderful response from those recipients verbalizing their appreciation for your thoughts and prayers.

With the Covid pandemic keeping everything shut down in the prisons, there has been no spiritual mentoring allowed in over a year. St. Dismas has begun a spiritual pen pal program in which an inmate is matched with an outside Catholic to help them in their faith journey. There is no requirements to participate other than a love for your faith. Anonymity will be preserved. A sample letter will be given to help you begin your correspondence. This is a wonderful way to practice the corporal work of mercy - "I was imprisoned and you visited me." If you feel a call to participate, please call Vicki Price at 816.589.1411 or email Vmprice53@gmail.com. Thank you for giving this your consideration.
