Stranger on the Shore

Today's Gospel, John 21:1-19, opens on a scene of fishermen who are confused and disoriented, with no discernible sense of direction. For three years, the Apostles had followed Jesus. He lived with them, taught them, prepared them for the time He would return to His Father. The Apostles knew Him, yet they didn't. After Jesus' death, they floundered without their Teacher and Master. Peter, feeling the need to do something useful and familiar, announced to those present that he was going fishing. The other Apostles were quick to seize this opportunity and volunteered to accompany him. They got in the boat and set off to ply their vocational skills.

Later, as they returned empty-handed after a futile night of fishing, they saw on the shore a figure whom they did not recognize. The stranger inquired if they had anything to eat. Receiving an answer in the negative, the man told them to cast their net again – but this time on the right side of the boat. The fishermen were very dubious, but they did as they were told. They were rewarded with a catch of 153 large fish. The net became so full they could not pull it out of the water. Then the beloved disciple, John, realized that it was Jesus speaking to them.

"It is the Lord!" he said excitedly to Peter. Hearing these words, Peter jumped into the sea and waded ashore. The rest of the Apostles followed in the boat towing their net. They were greeted by the sight of a charcoal fire with fish cooking on it and bread. The now revealed stranger, Jesus, told them to bring some of their catch to enjoy with breakfast. The Evangelist John tells us that this was the third time since His Resurrection that Jesus was revealed to His Apostles.

After they had eaten, Jesus addressed Simon Peter. He asked, "Peter, son of John, do you love me?" Peter answered, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you," and Jesus said, "Feed my lambs." A second time, Jesus inquired of Peter, "Peter, son of John, do you love me?" Peter replied, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus responded, "Tend my sheep." But Jesus was not finished with His interrogation of Peter.

A third time Jesus questioned, "Peter, son of John, do you love me?" Peter was getting very disturbed with Jesus' insistent questioning, but he also had to be hearing the voice of the girl in the courtyard and the crow of the cock, and knew that he was being given a second chance. Yet he was perturbed and blurted out, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus in His usual loving manner calmly told Peter, "Feed my sheep."

Peter, of course, was feeling guilt from having denied Jesus three times. Jesus does not want us to live as strangers to Him, nor with constant guilt. Instead He offers us forgiveness in return for our repentance, faith and love for Him.

Jesus asks us a similar question, "Do you love me?" How do we respond? Jesus is calling us to exchange our guilt feelings for feelings of love and recognition for Him. Even when we mess up or don't always show our love for Jesus the way we should, He gives us endless chances.

Sometimes we must stop and listen to God; He just may be asking us to change ourselves. What can we do to get to know Jesus better, to be less of a stranger? The answer to that question will be different for each one of us. Let faith, hope and love be our guidelines!

Stephen Ministry

"Bear one another's burdens, and in this way fulfill the law of Christ."

Stephen Ministers provide Care and support to hurting people by bringing God's love to them through confidential conversation and prayer.

If you are hurting in any way, for any reason, or know of someone who is hurting, please call to arrange a confidential meeting to get further information.

Special Needs Ministry

The Archdiocese special needs ministry serves and supports parishes in facilitating opportunities for a relationship with Christ by ensuring the fullest participation possible in the Catholic faith for all parishioners regardless of ability. Curé of Ars is excited to be a part this ministry which offers support and resources so that our parishioners with disabilities can fully participate in the life of our church community. If you need assistance or information on programs, please contact parish liaison Joanna Rivard at joannarivard@hotmail.com or Joanna Nickson, at joanna.nickson@gmail.com. More information available at <https://archkck.org/special-needs/home/>

The Deacon White Prayer Corner

We plan to have Stephen Ministers available after all weekend Masses. If you would like to pray for yourself, spouse, family member, friend or co-worker who is experiencing a rough spot in life, Please stop by after Mass to experience God's true love for you through prayer and or a special blessing. During time of need, or even a personal crisis, it can be so comforting to have someone to pray with you and for you. We will be located in the Chapel area in the North part of the church.

Please pray for those in our parish who are suffering from illness:

Holy Hour and Benediction

The institution of marriage and family is under attack in our culture today. This breakdown of marriage has been devastating to families and society. Do you know of marriages that are struggling? Families that need strengthening? Do you have loved ones who have left the faith? This is for the whole family. We will pray this beautiful and powerful novena together as we call on Our Lady's intercession for these and your personal intentions, and have adoration and Benediction before the Blessed Sacrament. Please join us this Tuesday evening, May 3, at 6 pm in the church to pray for marriages, families, vocations and for those who have left the faith to return to the Sacraments.

Eucharistic Adoration

“Of all devotions, that of adoring Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is the greatest after the sacraments, the one dearest to God and the one most helpful to us.”-St. Alphonsus Liguori

Our chapel is open 24 hours a day 7 days a week. Schedule a weekly holy hour or drop in for a visit anytime! For questions please contact Lisa at 913.558.1187 or lisawhi@gmail.com

Marian Reflection

Reading: She is the reflection of eternal light, the spotless mirror of the active power of God, and the image of his goodness.
~Wis 7:26

Reflection: Before her birth, the Prophets proclaimed the glory of Mary. They compared her to the sun. Indeed, the appearances of the Blessed Virgin can be compared to a beautiful ray of sunshine on a cloudy afternoon.
~St. John Vianney

Prayer: O Mary, you are the Sunshine of our lives. Let your rays of grace shine into my heart and cast out the darkness of sin and despair. Let me hope always in you.

Knights of Columbus

Friday, April 29, and Sunday, May 1, in the Father Burak Room are the Value Them Both speaker events at Curé open to people of all faiths. The Knights have prepared and delivered Value Them Both packets to eleven nearby non-Catholic churches in Kansas. We hope some of you signed up and went to the April 29th event. There is still time to attend the May 1 presentation at 6 pm. Bring your family and friends both Catholic and non-Catholic. Everyone is welcome!

Hope to see many of you on Sunday, May 1, for the final Knights of Columbus Breakfast Buffet of the current school year held in the school cafeteria from 8AM until Noon where menu consists of pancakes, thick cut bacon, sausage, scrambled eggs, biscuits and gravy, fruit, coffee, juice, milk, yogurt and granola, and donuts. Thanks to all who joined us during the school year to partake and for Knights and their families who helped in many ways.

The Knights help Fr. White many Saturdays throughout the year. Not just cleaning out chicken houses but also helping him pick up feed, trim trees, cut/rid areas of weeds, fix fences, and other repair projects. Contact the Knights if you would like to help us do work at Father Egg White's chicken farm.

Congratulations to our free throw champions this year! Charlie Homesy, Maura Maher, Brody Renners and Sam Deneke. They were rewarded with a gift card to Dick's Sporting Goods.

At our April meeting, David Blick was named the Knight of the Month, while the Jack Ferris family was named the Family of the Month!

For Catholic men 18 and older, the Knights of Columbus offer opportunities for furthering your faith, enjoying the camaraderie of other Catholic men, getting to know more people at Curé and working on things to help the church and school, seminarians, and those in need of help. To join the largest worldwide brotherhood of Catholic men simply go to: kofc.org and click on JOIN (select #9856 as your Council) or look us up at cureofars.com under Adult Organizations and Activities.

Afterwards, there will be light refreshments and the raffle drawings for attendance and homework. Please plan to join us!

The Risen Jesus: An Examination of the Resurrection Narratives

Wednesday evenings May 4, 11, 18, and 25, 2022 from 7-9 PM and Repeated on Thursday Mornings, May 4, 12, 19, 26, 2022 from 10 AM - Noon

During the Easter season we proclaim with great joy the resurrection story of Jesus. These four two-hour Zoom sessions examine the resurrection narratives of each of the four gospels, along with the significance the Risen Christ had for Paul, as reflected in his letters. These sessions are an ideal way to celebrate the Easter Season and deepen our understanding of and belief in the resurrection. Invite a friend and join us via Zoom as we reflect on these rich narratives which help us explore the deeper meaning of our baptismal call as disciples of the Lord. All churches and faith traditions are most welcomed. The session will be facilitated via Zoom by Biagio Mazza, Pastoral Associate at St. Sabina Parish in Belton, MO. To register email biagio@stsabinaparish.org or call 816-979-3153 with your name and time preference.

If you have any questions, please contact our giving coordinator, Sandy, in the parish office at sandydrake@cureofars.com or 913.521.9363.

DID YOU KNOW?

- The abortion industry fought every single one of the pro-life laws that Kansas has passed over the last 20 years Including:
 - the "Woman's Right to Know and See" law
 - the "Abortion Clinic Licensing & Inspection" laws
- This industry claims to be "healthcare" for women, but then opposes any law that treats them like healthcare for women.

Women deserve better.

Value Them Both will protect our existing laws which actually protect and are in the best interest of women seeking abortions in Kansas.
