Lead all to the Church through the Word, the Sacraments and the Mass.

As I Have Loved You

Today's Gospel (John 13:31-33a, 34-35) is a tutorial in love. We are taken back to the Last Supper. Judas has been dismissed to pursue his heinous mission of betrayal. Jesus is instructing the rest of His disciples as to what is about to occur. He explains His upcoming Crucifixion, Death and Resurrection saying, "Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in Him ... My children I will be with you only a little while longer." Jesus is getting us ready; He is preparing to leave us the Church.

Then Jesus commands His disciples, "Love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." This is the legacy of love that Jesus is giving us. He continues, "This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

Love has conveyed many different meanings throughout history. A significant portion of the Bible was written in Greek; the Greek language contains no less than six different words for love, each expressing a distinct type of love. Three of these words are used in the New Testament: storge, philia and agape.

Storge (pronounced: STOR-jay) describes family love, the affectionate bond that develops naturally between parents and children, and brothers and sisters. Philia (pronounced: FILL-ee-uh) is the type of intimate love in the Bible that most Christians practice toward each other. This term describes the powerful emotional bond seen in deep friendships. Philia is the most general type of love in Scripture, encompassing love for fellow humans, care, respect, and compassion for people in need. Jesus said philia would be an identifier of His followers: "By this everyone will know you are my disciples if you love one another."

The greatest example of love is Jesus Himself. Agape (pronounced uh-GAH-pay) defines God's immeasurable, incomparable love for humankind. Agape love is perfect, unconditional, sacrificial and pure. It is love without reservation. Jesus demonstrated this kind of divine love to His Father and to all humanity in the way He lived and died.

To understand the teaching of Christ, we must recognize that love underlies each and every rule from God. God so loved the world that He created all things and said it was good. Then He created humans and said this is very good, because He knew that we were the only ones of His creation to whom He gave the capability of love.

Love is in the here and now; it is not something that has happened only in the past or will be only in the future. It is the present. We were created by the love of God. We were saved through the love of God. Love never dies. It will carry us back to the Father, which is our ultimate goal. This is what sustains us: the love Jesus has for us, the love we have for Jesus, and the love we have for one another.

"Love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." This will be the identifying mark of all Christians, their self-sacrificing love for each other.

Marian Reflection

Reading: Can a woman forget her infant, be without mercy for the child of her womb? And if she should forget, I shall never forget you.

~Isa 49:15

Reflection: The Blessed Virgin Mary is like a mother who has many children. She is always busy going from one to the other!

~St. John Vianney

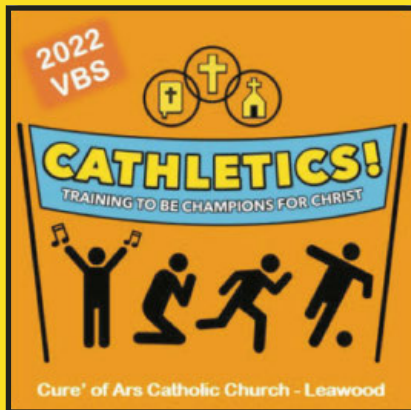

Prayer: O Mary, you are more devoted to the salvation of your children than any earthly mother can be. I thank you for your loving concern for me, which will only rest when I am in heaven with you.

May is Foster Care Awareness Month!

Every child is a unique and precious gift from God who deserves a loving family. Sadly, every day in Kansas, children are removed from their homes for a variety of reasons and through no fault of their own. Right now in Kansas there are roughly 7,000 children in care, coming from all backgrounds and from every community. Many have experienced trauma and are frightened and lonely. Archbishop Naumann says, “To be truly pro-life, we must make sure that every child has an environment where he or she can thrive.”

Foster parents open their hearts and homes helping children heal, trust, and hope again. Currently there are only approximately 2,600 licensed foster families in Kansas. The Church is the solution! Everyone can help – either by becoming a foster family, supporting the families who do foster, donating necessities or gifts for children, or mentoring teens who are aging out of the system. Please visit www.archkcks.com/foster to learn more.

HELP US PLEASE!

Knights of Columbus

For Catholic men 18 and older, the Knights of Columbus offer opportunities for furthering your faith, enjoying the camaraderie of other Catholic men, getting to know more people at Curé and working on things to help the church, school, seminarians, and those in need of help. To join the largest worldwide brotherhood of Catholic men simply go to: kofc.org and click on JOIN (select #9856 as your Council) or look us up at cureofars.com under Adult Organizations and Activities. We are looking for a few more Catholic men to join before the end of the fraternal year that ends June 30, so please strongly consider this invitation and join now.

Thanks to all Brother Knights and their families who volunteered at fish fries and breakfast buffets. Especially the ladies who helped with desserts at fish fries and desserts and presentation of food for the two Value Them Both presentations. What a great group to work with and be around. Anything can be accomplished with good people working together.

Catholic Charities food truck will be in the Curé parking lot and volunteers will be at the truck collecting canned food before and after the 4PM Mass on May 14 and all Masses on May 15 and be there on Sunday until 3:00 PM.

We continue to stay busy helping Father White, usually on Saturdays, with work at the chicken ranch. Cleaning and other work that Curé Knights helped with at his lower chicken house, allowed Father White to get chicks on schedule at the end of April. Besides lots of tree trimming, the Knights did some work in his two gardens so he could till up the soil to get ready for planting.

The KoC at Curé Council meeting will be Tuesday, May 24 in the Father Burak Room with a social at 6PM, a light meal at 6:30PM, and a meeting starting at 7PM. Visitors who are eligible to join and want to listen in at a council meeting before potentially joining are welcome to attend. This month's council meeting includes the election of officers for the July 2022-June 2023 fraternal year. If you are a member of the Council at Curé and interested in a council officer or director position, please contact the current officers, Deputy Grand Knight or Grand Knight.

DID YOU KNOW?

- IF Roe v. Wade is reversed through the decision on the Dobbs v. Jackson case, abortion will not go away but rather the regulation of the industry is returned to the states.
- IF Value them Both is NOT passed: voters in Kansas will have no right to pass laws through our elected officials to regulate the industry AND the 20+ common-sense bi-partisan laws already passed could be or have been struck down.

“No matter what the U.S. Supreme Court decides on abortion, as of now Kansas will remain a destination for painful late-term abortions and clinics with no health and safety standards – among the most extreme states in the nation. If Kansans want to stop this, they must vote YES on Value Them Both.” ~from Kansans For Life

If Kansans want to keep their voice on abortion access & regulation, they must vote YES on Value Them Both.

READY FOR ACTION? Many Kansans still need to hear about the Value Them Both Amendment. You can help as part of the most important grassroots outreach effort in Kansas history. Training opportunities exist every Tuesday and Thursday via Zoom during the month of May. Contact Pete at PeteC@ValueThemBoth.com

VOTER REGISTRATION: Contact the parish office if you are willing to help with Voter Registration after Masses in the coming weeks.
