Lead all to the Church through the Word, the Sacraments and the Mass.

Love and Peace

Periodically, we describe the Church's Liturgical Year as a symphony – a Symphony of Love in C Major. We are nearing the end of the Fourth Movement of that symphony, one that embraces the days of the Easter Season including the surging emotions of the Feasts of the Ascension and Pentecost, Feasts of the Holy Trinity and the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.

During this time, instead of Readings from the Old Testament and Epistles from the New Testament, we often hear Readings from the Acts of the Apostles, written by St. Luke, and from the Book of Revelations authored by the beloved disciple, John.

In these Readings and Gospels, we see many facets of Jesus: Comforter, Advocate, Mentor, Teacher, Leader, Master, Shepherd and Friend. Had Jesus decided to write a book, what kind would it be? Self-help? Autobiographical? No matter what genre it would resemble, its title may have to be “Love and Peace.”

Last week we talked about three distinct types of love that are used in the New Testament: storge, philia and agape. Philia describes the powerful emotional bond seen in deep friendships; philia encompasses love for fellow humans, care, respect, and compassion for people in need. Jesus said philia would be an identifier of His followers: “By this everyone will know you are my disciples if you love one another.

Today's Gospel is almost like paraphrasing an excerpt from Christ's book Jesus teaches His disciples in easy to recall sayings. He tells them: “Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him.”

These words of truth are so central to all of Jesus' teaching that they deserve to be repeated. Jesus' command to His disciples is to allow God to dwell with them by imitating the pattern of divine love: “Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him.”

Jesus, not wanting His disciples to feel abandoned, told them “The Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you. Jesus continues: “Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid.”

Peace is the counterpart of love. Peace comes with love of God, love of family and love of oneself. When we greet each other at the Sign of Peace during Mass, let us reflect deeply and realize that we are quoting Christ's own words: “Peace be with you!”

Where can we get a copy of Jesus' masterpiece? You probably already have one in your own home, the Bible. The Bible is the first book ever printed on the Gutenberg Press. It's the original self-help book; it's a biography of Jesus. It could be your “go to” book for daily reading.

Marian Reflection

Reading: O Lord,...you have been pleased to bless the house of your servant, so that it will always remain. It is you, O Lord, who blessed it, and it will be blessed forever.

~1 Chr 17:26-27

Reflection: Without the consent of Mary, God would not become Man. The reasons for this were first that we might feel under great obligation to her and second that we might realize that the salvation of all is left to her care.

~St. Peter Damian

Prayer: O Mary, you are entrusted with our salvation. Keep me safe from the snares of the devil.

May is Foster Care Awareness Month!

Every child is a unique and precious gift from God who deserves a loving family. Sadly, every day in Kansas, children are removed from their homes for a variety of reasons and through no fault of their own. Right now in Kansas there are roughly 7,000 children in care, coming from all backgrounds and from every community. Many have experienced trauma and are frightened and lonely. Foster parents open their hearts and homes helping children heal, trust, and hope again. Currently there are only approximately 2,600 licensed foster families in Kansas. The Church is the solution! Everyone can help – either by becoming a foster family, supporting the families who do foster, donating necessities or gifts for children, or mentoring teens who are aging out of the system. Please visit www.archkcks.com/foster to learn more.

Curé of Ars Outstanding Teacher of the Year Award

In 1994 a family in the parish wanted to do something special for our teachers at Curé of Ars. They have long recognized the dedication, sacrifice and continuing contributions made by all the teachers in our school.

With the goal to foster excellence in education at Curé of Ars school, the McGurren family established the McGurren Family Endowment. Their objective is to recognize, reward, and retain outstanding teachers at our school.

Each spring our teachers are given the opportunity to nominate a teacher they truly believes deserves this honor. In no particular order, this year's nominees are: Angela Wright, Amanda Clayton, Tasha Porter, Jane Barreca, Liz Engelbert, Amanda Petrofsky, Rhiannon Mendez, and Jackie Buser. As you can see, we had a phenomenal group of staff to choose from!

A selection committee of several individuals including members of the McGurren family, Fr. Storey, and multiple Principals from other Catholic schools meet to review the applications and make the difficult decision.

We are excited to announce that the recipient of the Curé Outstanding Teacher of the Year for 2021-2022 goes to Mrs. Porter!

Mrs. Porter is one of our veteran 2nd grade teachers that has dedicated 27 years of service to Catholic Schools and is beloved by the entire school community of students and staff. Mrs. Porter has served a vital role as a 2nd grade teacher at Curé for the last 5 years, helping our students receive the sacrament of First Holy Communion. Mrs. Porter has received a beautiful plaque recognizing her accomplishment as Teacher of the Year as well as a monetary reward from the McGurren Family Endowment. Congratulations, Mrs. Porter!
