Forty Days

What can you accomplish in forty days? What have others done with a similar time frame? Forty days has a long rich history as symbolizing preparedness in scripture: Noah's 40 days in the ark; Moses' 40 days on Mount Sinai; Elijah's 40 days wandering in the desert; even Jesus own 40 days of fasting and praying before beginning His public ministry.

Today, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Ascension. Many of us grew up celebrating it on a Thursday, a Holy Day of Obligation. Because of its importance as a feast day, it was made a diocesan option in the United States to celebrate it on the traditional Thursday or on the following Sunday as we now do in our Archdiocese of Kansas City in Kansas. Jesus has been using this time to prepare His disciples for the time when He would be leaving them.

Through the different Evangelists, we learn that Jesus appeared to His disciples and to others multiple times during those 40 days following His Resurrection, but they did not know Him. It was only when their eyes were opened that they recognized the Lord.

Our First Reading today is from the beginning of the Acts of the Apostles, and the Gospel contains the concluding verses of Luke's Gospel. Both Luke's Gospel and the Acts were addressed to "Theophilus" which means "Friend of God." Luke wanted to use his writings to influence his friend, whom he addresses as Theophilus, to draw closer to God.

As the time neared for Jesus to return to the Father, He told His disciples that He had to leave – but He let them down ever so gently. We read in John 14: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. You have faith in God; now have faith in me." Jesus explained, "In my Father's house there are many dwelling places. I am going to prepare a place for you. I will come back and take you to myself. Where I am going you know the way." Thomas objected, saying "we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?" Jesus enlightened him: "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life. No one comes to the Father except through me."

Luke described how Jesus was taken from the sight of His disciples. In Acts Luke provides the detail: "As they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him from their sight." Note the similarity to what occurred at the empty tomb early on Easter morning. "While they were looking intently at the sky as He was going, suddenly two men dressed in white garments stood beside them. They said, 'Men of Galilee, why are you standing there looking at the sky? This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven will return in the same way as you have seen Him going into heaven'" (Acts 1:10-11).

Just before He ascended into heaven, Jesus commissioned the disciples to go preach to all nations, to baptize and to live what He had taught them. He told them to stay in Jerusalem to wait for the promise of the Father. They were to stay together to strengthen one another while waiting to be baptized with the Holy Spirit. Then He was lifted up and taken from their sight.

We have been blessed with 40 days. What can we do with them? Can we use them to prepare for our future with the Lord God? God has sent us an Advocate, the Holy Spirit to remain with us and to guide us in the ways of the Lord. Can we use this time to prepare ourselves to renew in our lives the Gifts of the Holy Spirit, ask God's forgiveness for our sins, and pledge to remake ourselves in God's image and likeness?

Marian Reflection

Reading: She has set her table. She has sent out her maids to invite to the tower... "Let whoever is a little one come to me."

~Prov 9:2-4

Reflection: Nowhere do we find Jesus nearer to us and more adapted to our weakness than in Mary, since it was for that reason that He came to her. Everywhere else He is the Bread of the strong, the Bread of the Angels, but in Mary He is the Bread of children.

~St. Louis Grignion de Montfort

Prayer: O Mary, you bring Jesus to us in a way we can understand. Let me come to know Jesus more deeply, love Him more dearly, and follow Him more closely.

May is Foster Care Awareness Month!

Every child is a unique and precious gift from God who deserves a loving family. Sadly, every day in Kansas, children are removed from their homes for a variety of reasons and through no fault of their own. Right now in Kansas there are roughly 7,000 children in care, coming from all backgrounds and from every community. Many have experienced trauma and are frightened and lonely. Foster parents open their hearts and homes helping children heal, trust, and hope again. Currently there are only approximately 2,600 licensed foster families in Kansas. The Church is the solution! Everyone can help – either by becoming a foster family, supporting the families who do foster, donating necessities or gifts for children, or mentoring teens who are aging out of the system. Please visit www.archkcks.com/foster to learn more.
