Lead all to the Church through the Word, the Sacraments and the Mass.

To Know Him is to Love Him

Today we celebrate the feast of the Most Holy Trinity, three Divine Persons in one God. Every Mass, every sacramental rite we celebrate, begins with the Sign of the Cross: “In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen!” The concept of the Holy Trinity is a profound mystery that we will never fully understand while we are here on earth. For centuries, theologians, saints, philosophers and preachers alike have attempted to explain this mystery.

Jesus Christ has given us a variety of glimpses into the Trinitarian relationship. In John Chapter 14, we hear: “If you know me, you know my Father too. You must believe me when I say that I am in the Father and the Father is in me.” He continues, “I shall ask the Father, and He will give you another Advocate to be with you forever, that Spirit of truth...you know him because he is with you, he is in you.” This relationship is an exquisite interaction of love that exists within the Holy Trinity.

Perhaps the clearest expression in the New Testament of the Triune relationship can be found in the concluding verses of St. Matthew’s Gospel (28:16-20). Jesus directed the eleven disciples to convene on a mountain in Galilee, then He told them: “Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.”

St. Patrick used a shamrock, a three-leafed clover, to help shed light on the mystery; others have used an equilateral triangle or a trefoil. I like to use the outline of a heart to describe the relationship of love that exists within the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

The love emanates from the Father, arching and forming one side of a heart as He sends His Son to be our Redeemer. At the lower juncture of the sides of the heart, we think about how Jesus asks His Father to send another Advocate, the Spirit, to guide and lead us back to the Father, thus completing the image of the heart. We flourish in that love.

A few weeks ago we spoke of one of the challenges that Jesus gives to us, that of being evangelists in action. He wants us to be evangelists in our everyday lives, in all that we do. He explains to us: “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, I send you.”

Is this something we can add to our personal forty (or more) day mission of preparing for our afterlife? We need to know God, and love God more thoroughly in order to fulfill our mission. One way we can do this is to try to lead others to Him.

Let us intercede with our special Advocate the Holy Spirit that together with the Son and Father, the Holy Trinity will guide us along the path of evangelization. May we learn to know and love God more deeply so we can lead others by our prayers, our actions and our works. As St. Francis succinctly put it.: “Preach always, use words if necessary!”

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen!

Father Storey

Welcome to Curé of Ars!

We invite you to join the Parish! To register as a parishioner of Curé of Ars, go to www.cureofars.com, click on About Curé, then select Register with Curé of Ars. (link: cureofars.com/registration) You can also stop by the Parish Office located to the north of the church to fill out a registration form. Once your form is completed (electronically or in person), the parish office staff will reach out to you with information on how to become active in various parish activities and ministries.

Special Needs Ministry

The Archdiocese special needs ministry serves and supports parishes in facilitating opportunities for a relationship with Christ by ensuring the fullest participation possible in the Catholic faith for all parishioners regardless of ability. Curé of Ars is excited to be a part this ministry which offers support and resources so that our parishioners with disabilities can fully participate in the life of our church community. If you need assistance or information on programs, please contact parish liaison Joanna Rivard at joannarivard@hotmail.com or Joanna Nickson, at joanna.nickson@gmail.com. More information available at <https://archkck.org/special-needs/home/>

The Deacon White Prayer Corner

We plan to have Stephen Ministers available after all weekend Masses. If you would like to pray for yourself, spouse, family member, friend or co-worker who is experiencing a rough spot in life, Please stop by after Mass to experience God's true love for you through prayer or a special blessing. During time of need, or even a personal crisis, it can be so comforting to have someone to pray with you and for you. We will be located in the Chapel area in the North part of the church.

Please pray for those in our parish who are suffering from illness:

Our Parish Family Weekly Novena

Please join us every Tuesday evening at 6:00 pm in the church to pray for marriages, families, vocations and for those who have left the faith to return to the Sacraments. This is for the whole family, children included. We will pray this beautiful and powerful prayer as we call on Our Lady's intercession for these intentions.

Marian Reflection

Reading: Observe....the commandment....love the Lord, your God; walk in all his ways; keep all his commandments; cling to him; and serve him with all your heart and soul.

~Jos 22:5

Reflection: Love the Immaculata! Confide in her and consecrate yourself to her without reservation. Strive to do everything as she herself would do.

~St. Maximilian Kolbe

Prayer: O Mary, I give myself completely to you. Help me to love you, to follow your example in all things, and to love God as you did all your life.

DID YOU KNOW?

The majority of post-abortive women say they didn't "choose" abortion, but instead felt like they had no choice. Many lacked resources, support or someone who was willing to say, "You can choose life for your child and I can help."

What can we do?

Women facing a difficult pregnancy should see the Church as a place to find love and support. Parishes do not need to become pregnancy help centers, but they can connect women to Archdiocesan and community resources and provide her support and encouragement. Helping Kansas Women is one of those resources which is found at helpingkansaswomen.org. It was created on behalf of the Pregnancy Resource Centers in Kansas to benefit women and families facing unplanned or challenging pregnancy circumstances. This site is working to elevate and improve awareness about pregnancy and family support resources in Kansas, while also asking faith communities to step in if support gaps exist. As a Walking With Moms Parish, you can help spread this message of support! We know there are Catholic women facing difficult pregnancies, and we know our parishioners know pregnant women needing help. We have the ability through our parishes to reach women in need, helping them choose life for their child and a happier, healthier future for themselves. Contact the Parish Office if you would like to help establish Walking With Moms at Curé of Ars.

Keep Praying

The most important thing that you can do to help over these last few weeks is pray for the success of the amendment and share about it with others. Please continue prayers for women and families facing unplanned or challenging pregnancies.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, Patroness of the Unborn, pray for us!

Sacrament & Other Information
