From the Pastor's Desk

As we prepare to enter into Advent next week, a time of interior preparation to celebrate the birth of Christ at Christmas, I hope you will find enlightening this meditation from the Spanish Carmelite priest St. John of the Cross.

Fr. Jerry

The Knowledge of the Mystery Hidden in Christ Jesus

From a spiritual Canticle by Saint John of the Cross, priest (Red. B, str. 36-37)

Though holy doctors have uncovered many mysteries and wonders, and devout souls have understood them in this earthly condition of ours, yet the greater part still remains to be unfolded by them, and even to be understood by them.

We must then dig deeply in Christ. He is like a rich mine with many pockets containing treasures: however deep we dig we will never find their end or their limit. Indeed, in every pocket new seams of fresh riches are discovered on all sides.

For this reason the apostle Paul said of Christ: In him are hidden all the treasures of the wisdom and knowledge of God. The soul cannot enter into these treasures, nor attain them, unless it first crosses into and enters the thicket of suffering, enduring interior and exterior labors, and unless it first receives from God very many blessings in the intellect and in the senses, and has undergone long spiritual training.

All these are lesser things, disposing the soul for the lofty sanctuary of the knowledge of the mysteries of Christ: this is the highest wisdom attainable in this life.

Would that men might come at last to see that it is quite impossible to reach the thicket of the riches and wisdom of God except by first entering the thicket of much suffering, in such a way that the soul finds there its consolation and desire. The soul that longs for divine wisdom chooses first, and in truth, to enter the thicket of the cross.

Saint Paul therefore urges the Ephesians not to grow weary in the midst of tribulations, but to be steadfast and rooted and grounded in love, so that they may know with all the saints the breadth, the length, the height and the depth—to know what is beyond knowledge, the love of Christ, so as to be filled with all the fullness of God.

The gate that gives entry into these riches of his wisdom is the cross; because it is a narrow gate, while many seek the joys that can be gained through it, it is given to few to desire to pass through it.

New Parishioner Welcome Reception

Keeping You in the Know Faith Formation Edition: November 2021

Join Us for Rejoice! Advent Meditations with the Holy Family

Advent is a special season for the Church — it is the time when the world prepares to celebrate the coming of Christ anew. Often, we lose sight of the point of this season because we get caught up in our preparations for Christmas and arrive at Christmas no more transformed than we were at the start of Advent.

Our parish is seeking to prepare for Jesus' birth and experience true transformation in this powerful season by engaging with a program called Rejoice! Advent Meditations with the Holy Family by Ascension Press. This year, we will walk with Mary and Joseph as they prepare to welcome their son, the Savior of the World.

We have the opportunity to walk together, following the Holy Family on their journey to Bethlehem. Each participant will receive a Rejoice! journal, filled with beautiful art and meaningful meditations to accompany them throughout the entire Advent season. And because we want this Advent to be a journey we take together, we will be gathering the first three Wednesdays of Advent, December 1st, 8th, and 15th, from 6-7 pm in the Alcove for further reflection, discussion, prayer, and fellowship.

Each day in the journal, as you walk with the Holy Family, you'll enjoy ...

- A word - Focus on a single word each day to draw out the details, the specifics of the Holy Family.
- A reflection - Learn more about their lives, the culture in which they were raised, and the world in which they lived.
- A Psalm - Each day, you're given a Psalm to pray (just as Mary and Joseph would have prayed) to help you enter into prayer.
- A reading - In reading Scripture, you'll enter into the story of the first Advent and walk beside the Holy Family.
- A prompt - Space is provided each day to journal. Record how the Lord is speaking to you this Advent.

Rejoice! is an opportunity to intentionally enter into the season of Advent and receive the grace God is waiting to give us in this holy season. Join us for this Advent and take full advantage of this transformative experience - Rejoice! Meditations on the Holy Family.

To register, please go to: <https://qhrwea.church/rejoice-advent-registration>. Questions, please get in touch with Kimberly at formation@qhrwea.org.

A Bible Study on the Joyful Mysteries:
The Visitation

Have you ever wanted to grow in your understanding and devotion to the Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary? Join Dr. Ben Akers and professors from the Augustine Institute Graduate School as they walk through these Biblical mysteries and seek to grow in understanding and love for Christ through them.

Everyone who belongs to the truth knows God's voice. When you turn your head and put your hands over your ears, you will not hear God's voice.

You will say unkind words.

You will do mean things.

When you listen to God's voice, you will choose to follow the commandments.

You will do for others what you would want them to do for you. Then, God will welcome you to his kingdom in heaven.

Prayer

Lord, help me recognize your voice and do your will.

Mission For The Week

God takes sins away. I will take the trash away for my family.
