Advent

Human beings cannot live without hope. Unlike the animals, we are blessed, or cursed, with the ability to think about the future and to fear our actions to shaping it. So essential is this to human life, that human beings cannot live without hope, without something to live for, without something to look forward to. To be without hope, to have nothing to live for, is to surrender to death in despair. But we can find all sorts of things to live for and we can hope for almost anything: for some measure of success or security or for the realization of some more or less modest ambition; for our children, that they might be saved from our mistakes and sufferings and find a better life than we have known; for a better world, throwing ourselves into politics or medicine or technology so that future generations might be better off. Not all these forms of hope are selfish; indeed, they have given dignity and purpose to the lives of countless generations.

But one of the reasons why we read the Old Testament during Advent is to learn what to hope for. The people of the Old Testament had the courage to hope for big things: that the desert would be turned into fertile land; that their scattered and divided people would eventually be gathered again; that the blind would see, the deaf hear, the lame walk; that not only their won people, but all the peoples of the earth, would be united in the blessings of everlasting peace. Clearly, their hopes were no different from ours or from any human being's: lasting peace, tranquil lives, sufficiency of food, an end to suffering, pain and misery.

Thus we hope for the same things as the Old Testament people, for their hopes are not yet realized. But we differ from them in two ways. First, the coming of Jesus in history, as a partial fulfillment of God's promises, immeasurably confirms and strengthens our hope. Secondly, we differ from the Old Testament people because Jesus has revealed to us that God is not afar off, but is already in our midst. Hence the importance in the Advent liturgy of John the Baptist and of Mary: because they recognized the new situation, they serve as models for the Church in discerning the presence of our Savior in the world.

Keeping You in the Know November 2021

Hello Folks,

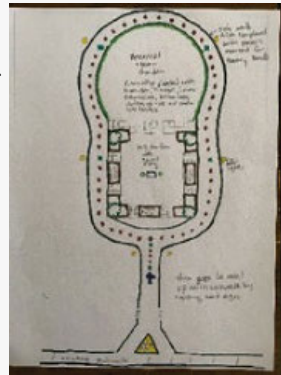

Outdoor Classrooms

As soon as we submitted the last bulletin I received an email indicating the steel should be on site and installation starting on Monday, November 15th. Well, that's what happened. They'll be completing the installation, electrical, lighting, in the next couple of weeks. Here's a photo of the progress.

Rosary Path

Please see below the website link and qr code that will lead you to the "Rosary Path" page and larger view of the preliminary plan prepared by Kathryn Sarnecki and Deb Heine. Again, we'd like to tie this to "Giving Tuesday", the Tuesday after Thanksgiving. It's a "global generosity movement unleashing the power of people and organizations to transform their communities and the world." What better way to transform our community than through the Virgin Mary!

Rejoice!

Advent Meditations
with the Holy Family

Join Us for Rejoice! Advent Meditations with the Holy Family

Advent is a special season for the Church — it is the time when the world prepares to celebrate the coming of Christ anew. Often, we lose sight of the point of this season because we get caught up in our preparations for Christmas and arrive at Christmas no more transformed than we were at the start of Advent.

Our

We have the opportunity to walk together, following the Holy Family on their journey to Bethlehem. Each participant will receive a Rejoice! journal, filled with beautiful art and meaningful meditations to accompany them throughout the entire Advent season. And because we want this Advent to be a journey we take together, we will be gathering the first three Wednesdays of Advent, December 1st, 8th, and 15th, from 6-7 pm in the Alcove for further reflection, discussion, prayer, and fellowship.

To register, please go to:

<https://qhrwea.church/rejoice-advent-registration>.

Questions, please get in touch with Kimberly at formation@qhrwea.org.

Live the Liturgy

Inspiration for the Week

Any human success requires vigilance. Opportunities and powerful moments of encounter can easily be missed when we are not attentive. It is all too easy today to live distracted and preoccupied lives.

There is so much vying for our attention that it can be hard to be selective and really focus. Caught up in this whirlwind of busyness and anxiety, we become tired and almost sleepwalk through life. Advent is a time to selectively focus. These beautiful four short weeks are a time to look backward and forward and be attentive to the human journey and God's revelation. From the beginning of time, God has been seeking our attention. He constantly reminds us of the justice he desires to bring and the promise of his abiding unconditional love. Understanding and growing in these truths requires alertness so that we can be strengthened in our faith and prepared for whatever will come.

Kids Corner Read the Gospel & Color

When you are baptized, God gives you grace to help obey his commandments.

These graces are like a pair of shoes with lights on them. They light the way to follow the examples of Jesus. You will share your toys. You will take out the trash. You will take good care of your baby sister. The graces of baptism help you to love God above all else. Then God will welcome you into heaven.

Prayer

Lord, send me graces so I love you above everything..

Mission For The Week

I will pray every morning that my family sees and stays on God's path.

Poor of Jesus Christ

If you're looking to get rid of any coats, especially men's or have blankets lying around the house, the "Poor of Jesus Christ" in Kansas City, Kansas is in need of both. They've also mentioned that for Thanksgiving, they like to give backpacks filled with such items as gloves, scarves, hats, socks, hand warmers, etc. Therefore, donations of new or gently used of any of these items would be greatly appreciated. There will be a container in the Vestibule of the Church where you can leave donations. Thank you in advance for your help!

Formed.org Saint Peter

Saint Peter tells the epic story about the key event in European and world history: the spread of Christianity throughout the Roman Empire, focusing on the leader of that new religion. St. Peter is played by the renowned Egyptian actor, Omar Sharif, Lawrence of Arabia, Doctor Zhivago. The film illustrates the strong reaction of Romans and Jews from a political and religious standpoint, and it also deals with the immense obstacles Christianity encountered in the early stages of its development.
