Celebration of Life

Betty Verhaeghe's Celebration of Life, Memorial Service will be held on Saturday, April 2nd. The Rosary will be at 11:30 AM in the Church, and then the Celebration of Life from 12 PM-2 PM in the Parish Hall.

From the Pastor's Desk

There are many beautiful prayers in the Roman Missal book used for the celebration of the Mass. Each priest says secretly during the celebration of the Mass many prayers that people don't know about. These two prayers before receiving Holy Communion are my two favorites and I thought you would love memorizing them too. Enjoy them!

Fr. Jerry

*Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, who, by the will of the Father and the work of the Holy spirit,
through your Death gave life to the world,
free me by this, your most holy Body and Blood,
from all my sins and from every evil:
keep me always faithful to your commandments,
and never let me be parted from you.*

*May the receiving of your Body, and Blood,
Lord Jesus Christ,
not bring me to judgment and condemnation,
but through your loving mercy
be for me protection in mind and body
and a healing remedy.*

Pray for Ukraine

God of mercy and love, we pray that you will hear the cries of your oppressed people of Ukraine. As you brought the Israelites out of Egypt with your strong hand and outstretched arm into their own country, so we beg that you bring strength and courage to the Ukrainians as they seek justice and freedom. We beg you to hear their cry, to see their affliction, and to unite your children throughout the world in supporting and aiding them. We ask this in your name. Amen.

Where to Give to Help Ukraine

Various Catholic agencies are collecting donations to aid with the humanitarian crisis in Ukraine, as people flee to escape Russian bombing and shelling. Here are some places to donate. This list is not exhaustive.

- The international Caritas confederation is collecting funds to help Caritas Ukraine. In the United States, that is through Catholic Relief Services.
- The Ukrainian Catholic Archeparchy of Philadelphia: ukrarcheparchy.us/donate.

- Two pontifical agencies also are taking donations for Ukraine: Catholic Near East Welfare Association and Aid to the Church in Need.
- The Knights of Columbus launched the Ukraine Solidarity Fund for humanitarian needs in Ukraine and through refugee sites in Poland.
- Donations can also be made to Jesuit Refugee Service to support the agency's work with those forced to flee conflict in Europe.

Gospel Mediation

God's love story reveals itself in our stories, experiences, and aspirations. We are all prodigal sons and daughters. There are many times in our lives when we would "sell our souls" in order to pursue our passions.

We pursued what we wanted without regard for others or God. We have sowed our oats, thrown ourselves into careless pleasures, spent what we know we ought to have saved, turned our backs on those we love and abused gifts we have been given. We even hit bottom and realized the silliness and self-destruction of it all. We needed to come home. We knew we erred and needed a gentle presence to show us God's unconditional love. This wayward journey home changed us.

As much as we need to be welcomed, we are also the one who needs to do the welcoming and mercy giving. Those we love need our guidance, but they don't always take it. We know that what they are doing is off the mark, self-destructive and wrong. We have to let them go and let it happen, even though they might get hurt. As we wait and hope, they choose to make their way back to us. They don't need us to judge them. They have done enough of that to themselves. We immediately embrace them and are just happy they're home. God uses us to help heal them. Knowing how much we craved understanding and forgiveness ourselves, we can now freely give it away. God uses what he has taught us to teach others.

We are also the entitled ones. At least we "think" we are entitled. After all, we work hard for what we have. We cannot get our heads around the idea that someone can get something that I really deserve! If I do what I'm supposed to do, I ought to be rewarded for that, right? If I do something wrong, I ought to pay the consequences. This is justice, isn't it? This is not God's justice. God is all about love, mercy, compassion, and forgiveness. God's justice is love freely given without merit. We carry the stories of the prodigal son, the unconditional forgiving father, and the entitled angry brother with us. When we make friends with all three, humbly telling those stories to others makes us Christ's ambassadors.

Glimpses Along the Way of the Cross
By: Monsignor James Shea

In these three beautiful talks, Monsignor James Shea guides us along the Stations of the Cross, teaching us how to open our hearts more to the suffering and loneliness of Jesus on His way to Calvary. Weaving together the insights of Keen believers like Fr. Richard Neuhaus, Caryll Houslander, Archbishop Fulton Sheen, and Dr. James Edwards, these powerful meditations take us into the depths of Christ's agony, and back out again into the joy of what His sacrifice means for us.

Kids Corner Read the Gospel & Color

Imagine that your father gave you and your brother $10. You saved yours. But when it was time to put the money in the bank, your brother told your father, "I'm sorry. I wasted my money on candy bars." Your father forgave him and gave him another $10. You felt hurt and asked him why. He said, "I love you both. Your brother has learned his lesson. I am happy."

Prayer

Lord, help me take good care of my money and my soul.
