Pastor's Croner

Last week you read in this bulletin about our QHR-Wea parish twinning with San Miguel Arcangel (St. Michael the Archangel) parish in Chile, South America. The Diocese of Linares has only 23 priests and no seminarians at the moment. Thus, each priest is assigned two or three parishes to cover the vast needs of Catholics in the area. Fr. Mario is stretched thin between a couple of parish communities. The main church in the larger town is the parish; the smaller churches in less populated rural communities are chapels and they may see a priest every other month due to the shortage of priests and no vocations. Here in the USA we are blessed with enough priests to staff each parish and a good number of seminarians to replace retiring priests in the future. Let us pray for vocations to the priesthood in the Diocese of Linares in Chile so that the Eucharist will be available to them without interruption. These pictures are two of the chapels that are part of Fr. Mario's parish.

Building Committee Report Mark Benne

As was mentioned during Mass last weekend, the building assessment final report has been completed and is posted on the website. This report is a culmination of a full architectural, structural, mechanical and electrical inspection that was performed by a team of professional engineers and architects. The report contains an executive summary that provides a good overview of the process and findings. Also, there is a Hazard and Matrix Log which lists corrective actions and prioritizes which items should be addressed first. It is important to note that the team did not find any critical issues that must be corrected immediately. The parish leadership will use this information to develop repair and maintenance projects that will keep our beautiful church in good condition for years to come.

Congratulations to all the children who made their First Communion

Gospel Meditation

Could it be that God's image has become so soiled and distorted that it is hard for us to see it? Our self-serving agendas have done a great job twisting God's image into what profits us.

We want our agenda to be God's agenda and use prayer as the convincing leverage we need. Worse still, our success and egocentric agenda often erases God's image completely, replacing it with our own. St. Oscar Romero instructs us that the Son of Man "dies on the cross to cleanse God's image, which is soiled in today's humanity, a humanity so enslaved, so selfish, so sinful." Striving to preserve control of our destinies at all costs, we fail to see the risen suffering servant, the Christ, standing right beside us.

Jesus, who suffered and died on a cross and was raised from the dead, corrects our soiled image of God. He shows us God as God is, not who we want to make God to be. God is the God of the poor, the weak, and the marginalized. He is the God who tenderly caresses us when we are suffering and hurting, assuring us that all will be safe and well. He is the God of equity, peace, justice, and compassion who wants happiness for each of His children, desiring their wellbeing and success. God goes where men and women are afraid to go, sitting with the lost, the broken, and the sorrowing. St. Oscar Romero challenges us to illuminate with "Christ's light...even the most hideous caverns of the human person: torture, jail, plunder, want, chronic illness. The oppressed must be saved." The Resurrection calls us to be God's microphone, a messenger, and a prophet. (St. Oscar Romero)

Using eyes that see beyond the limited constructs and desires of our world, we can see the true and real Jesus standing before us, calling us to transformation and change. He asked us more than once, "do you love me?" We are beckoned to give an answer. Answering in the affirmative, it is now our task to feed the sheep and the lambs who belong to God. In short, equipped with the power of the resurrection and a corrected image of God, our task is to make things better, brighter, holier, more life-giving, and just for all of God's children. Considering our choices, our interactions, our philosophies, and aspirations, how can we do this?

Formed.org Swimming Upstream: Going Against the Current Culture By: Stephen Ray

In this empowering talk, Steve Ray shares what it means to be a Christian in today's world. By examining the lives and martyrdoms of the early Christians and understanding how they transformed the pagan Greco-Roman culture, Steve gives us a blueprint for the New Evangelization. Learn from early Christians how to swim upstream against the current culture and become a witness for Christ.

Altar Society

Our next meeting will be on Tuesday, May 3rd at 6:30 PM in the St. Angela's Alcove. We will be voting for the new officers.

Vacation Bible School

QHR-Wea has been informed that Totus Tuus does not have enough missionary teams to send to all of the parishes that applied for it this summer. We are on a waitlist. Since this is the case, we will offer VBS, June 13th-17th, from 9AM - Noon for kindergarten thru 5th grade (fall 2022).

Registration opens on April 25th. We look forward to seeing you this summer!

Middle School and High School will have something in July, so watch for more details!

Rosary Guild

If you're not too tired after Running with the Cows, join us on Sunday, May 15th from 3-4:30 PM in the parish hall to make mission rosaries. You can bring your completed rosaries, pick up new materials, and enjoy fellowship while making rosaries. If you don't know how to make a simple cord/bead rosary, drop in anytime and we'll teach you! Bring yourself and your willingness to learn and we'll take it from there!

For more information visit:

When the apostles ran out of food, they went fishing. They fished all night long, but they didn't catch anything. In the early hours of the morning, they saw Jesus standing on the shore. He told them to put their nets down in the water on the right side of the boat. They caught so many fish that their net was filled to the top. They were very glad they had listened to Jesus.

Prayer

Lord, help me listen and follow the directions of my parents.

Mission For The Week

When my parents ask me to do something, I will do it right away.
