Pastor's Corner

Happy Mother's Day to you all!

Months ago one of the parish ladies shared this wonderful piece of writing with me that obviously was written by a great woman of faith, wife, and mother (author unknown). Even though many may have already read it, it is good for us, especially men, to read it and appreciate even more all the beautiful work that women do quietly like Mary of Nazareth. May the Lord continue to bless our QHR-Wea mothers, living and deceased, today and every day.

Fr. Jerry.

GOD COMES TO WOMEN

Have you ever noticed how in the scriptures men are always going up into the mountains to commune with the Lord?

Yet in the scriptures we hardly ever hear of women going to the mountains. But we know why — right?

Because the women were too busy keeping life going; they couldn't abandon babies, meals, homes, fires, gardens, and a thousand responsibilities to make the climb into the mountains!

I was talking to a friend the other day, saying that as modern woman I feel like I'm never "free" enough from my responsibilities, never in a quiet enough space I want with God.

Her response floored me, "That is why God comes to women. Men have to climb the mountain to meet God, but God comes to women wherever they are."

I have been pondering on her words for weeks and have searched my scriptures to see that what she said is true. God does indeed come to women where they are, when they are doing their ordinary, everyday work.

He meets them at the wells where they draw water for their families, in their homes, in their kitchens, in their gardens.

He comes to them as they sit beside sickbeds, as they give birth, care for the elderly, and perform necessary mourning and burial rites.

Even at the empty tomb, Mary was the first to witness Christ's resurrection, She was there because she was doing the womanly chore of properly preparing Christ's body for burial.

In these seemingly mundane and ordinary tasks, these women of the scriptures found themselves face to face with divinity.

So if — like me — you ever start to bemoan the fact that you don't have as much time to spend in the mountains with God as you would like. Remember, God comes to women. He knows where we are and the burdens we carry. He sees us, and if we open our eyes and our hearts we will see Him, even in the most ordinary places and in the most ordinary things.

Blessing of Mothers

God our heavenly Father,
You give to each the ability to share your generative love.

Bless those women in our lives who mirror your love to risk bringing new life into this world.

Help us to show them our gratitude for the gift of life and the gift of a mother's love.

May our life-giving God continue to bless them and show them his unfailing love.

We ask this through Jesus, God's Son and our brother.
Amen.

Thank you to the School of Religion Catechetical Team!

QHR-Wea SOR exists to assist families in forming their children in the Catholic faith as disciples of Christ. Catechists are witnesses of the faith, keepers of the memory of God, teachers, accompaniers, and educators (Directory for Catechesis, 113). It takes hours of planning, preparing, and praying. We are blessed at QHR-Wea to have dedicated SOR catechists who generously and joyously live this vocation. Thank you for sharing your gifts, time, and talents with our families. We are grateful!

Sincerely in Christ,
Mrs. Zubillaga

Rosary Guild

If you're not too tired after Running with the Cows, join us on Sunday, May 15th from 3-4:30 PM in the parish hall to make mission rosaries. You can bring your completed rosaries, pick up new materials, and enjoy fellowship while making rosaries. If you don't know how to make a simple cord/bead rosary, drop in anytime and we'll teach you!
Bring yourself and your willingness to learn and we'll take it from there!

Gospel Meditation

"Human beings, while capable of the worst, are also capable of rising above themselves, choosing again what is good, and making a new start." (Pope Francis)

We have a difficult time figuring out what is true and best for us. There are many voices talking and so many trying to get our attention. We wrongly convince ourselves that the true voice is the one of progress, the one that speaks of contemporary wants and desires, enticing us with the latest trends and causes. We are taught, by listening to the voices around us, that truth is found in feelings and thought, and ideals must match current and popular human wants. Because we feel a particular way it must be true. Then, we find a shepherd who empathized with us and affirms us. We follow that voice even though listening to that voice will render us powerless and lead us to harm. There are many with me in this procession to this pasture. I must be on the right path and listening to the right voice.

We are very confused. What can keep us safe and from harm? Where do we go to find life, love, and happiness? Jesus tells us that he is the way, the truth, and the life. The only way to get to Truth, who is God, is through him. There is no other way. The Church, the gate around God's pasture of life, is charged with the mission of directing us where God desires that we go. In the midst of all of the conflicting voices around us, the voice of truth is often muffled in all of the noise, but it beckons us to a life of virtue and grace. Helping us understand who we are and where we have to be, it discerns the voice of God, providing us with the safety net we need to stay straight on our path to life eternal.

We have to trust the voice of God, the true Shepherd, even when it does not mirror what we want and what others may believe. Faith goes way beyond feeling and involves a radical trust in Someone who can lead us and form us. At day's end, if we do not know how to find our way home, we will be truly lost.

Kids Corner Read the Gospel & Color

Your daddy knows when you are talking to him. You know when your daddy is talking to you. Your eternal Father wants you to recognize his voice, too. God's voice always says good things to you. His voice warns when you are in danger. He tells you the right thing to do. He tells you how to stay away from bad things. His voice keeps you on the road to heaven. Listen to him.

Prayer

I want to recognize and hear your voice, O God.

Mission For The Week

I will pray for the children who cannot hear anyone's voice at all.
