The Prayer Before Mass

Come Holy Spirit, quiet my heart and my head, as I gather with my family, friends and neighbors to celebrate Mass.

Quiet the thoughts and distractions that will keep me from worship.

Open my mouth in prayer and song.

Open my ears to hear God's Word.

Open my eyes to the mystery of the Eucharist.

Open my heart to receive Jesus with love.

May I go forth strengthened to take the Mass into my life this week. Amen.

Disciples...Growing in Faith Together

Expecting a new baby?

You are invited to receive a special pre-natal blessing from Father Dan. A white rose dedicated to you will be placed by the statue of Mary as a symbol that the entire parish is praying for you and your baby. The blessings are normally given at 6pm on the first Monday of every month. Following the blessing there is a Baptismal Preparation Class to help you prepare for this important day in your child's life. Call the Parish Office to register.

"Fully Alive as Missionary Disciples"

MY FATHER'S HOUSE

Notice the slight shift created in today's Gospel, stemming from the use of one capital letter. We can only imagine the fear and frustration Mary must have felt when she finally found Jesus after being separated from Him for three days. She says: "Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety." The 12-year-old Jesus responds with: "Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" The slight shift from father to Father speaks volumes here. Jesus acknowledges Joseph and Mary as His earthly parents, and He is obedient to them. However, He seems quite aware that He is not "of this world" and must make His way to His Father's house. May we all remember that we should not allow ourselves to get lost or attached to things in this world and that we should, instead, make our way to our Father's house. Like the child Jesus, we are called to obedience in this temporary world, but we were created for holiness in the Kingdom of God!**

Gospel Meditation

Families can be very difficult things to negotiate. This is true not only of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our Church, our society, and our global family as well. Everything human can be found in family stories. Those stories speak of wonderful life-giving successes as well as painful spirit-robbing abuses. Our greatest joys and our greatest wounds are usually connected with the experience of family. Our needs, experiences, and unresolved baggage often color what we bring to our familiar relationships. They contribute to our level of defensiveness, how guarded and protected we become, and what prejudices we believe.

In order to break the cycle of dysfunction we have to remember that it is not only by human effort that we negotiate the difficult and challenging events of our lives. There is a Divine Effort at work as well. For sure, the human effort can create quite a mess and easily destroy lives. This is true of any family with which we are associated. Today's Feast of the Holy Family serves to help us understand that there is a Divine Story being told as well. It is a story of perseverance in the face of hardship, determination in the face of despair, healing when we see nothing but wounds, and light where there is darkness.

Do we believe that God is always working, guiding, restoring, and leading? Unless we do, we will never be free from the imperfections and wounds that bind us and never be able to understand what it really means to forgive. Pope Francis tells us that the "light which comes from the Holy Family encourages us to offer human warmth to other families." While this is most certainly true, we can only really begin to do this when we realize that we are still works in progress, not anchored to the wounds and sins of our past, and still a leading star in God's continually unfolding story of love. The Holy Family persevered and radiated warmth because they knew they were not alone. We can too.

CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF WICHITA CATHOLIC CHARITIES

Make Christmas special for children in shelter—Many of those Catholic Charities serves at Harbor House and St. Anthony Family Shelter are unable to provide Christmas gifts for their families. The reality of being in a shelter during the holidays adds additional stress for parents and children alike, making it difficult for them to enjoy what should be a cheerful celebration. You can help fill the shelves for Santa’s Workshop, allowing parents to select gifts for their children, while children choose gifts for their parents. To view the wish list or to learn how to donate items or make a cash gift, visit CatholicCharitiesWichita.org/Christmas.

Share the Love of Christ with those in need—In the Diocese of Wichita, Catholic Charities is our collective response to putting “Love Like Christ” into action every day. With 13 ministries that serve the hungry, homeless, lonely, disabled and abused, Catholic Charities’ donors, volunteers and staff touch the lives of 18,000 people each year. Your year-end contribution to Catholic Charities’ Faithful Servant Fund can have double the impact thanks to a $50,000 match challenge that ends Dec. 31. To learn more or to donate, visit CatholicCharitiesWichita.org/christmas-appeal.

Morning of Reflection for Women—Tammy Cook from Justice for All will speak about the topic: Pro-Life Answers to Pro-Choice Questions. Her talk is open to all women on Saturday, January 8th from 8:00 to 10:30 at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church in the Bishop Gilmore Room. The morning will begin with Mass, followed by a light breakfast, and end with her presentation. This event is being hosted by Regnum Christi (Latin for "Kingdom of Christ") which is an apostolic movement in the Catholic Church to help form people in holiness and to bring Christ to others. Please RSVP by Monday, January 3rd at Morning of Reflection for Women.

Seeking Classroom Foster Grandparents—If you enjoy working with children, consider becoming a Classroom Foster Grandparent. Catholic Charities is recruiting people ages 55 and older to work 15 to 40 hours a week at local schools, helping children develop the social and academic skills needed for success. To be eligible, a person must have an income of less than 200 percent of the federal poverty level based on household size. Those who qualify can earn a tax-free stipend. Call (316) 264-8344, ext. 1211 to sign up for an information session Jan. 11.

A Biblical Walk through the Mass - Tuesdays, Jan. 11th—Feb. 8th, 10:00—11:30 am—Join this 5 Week Bible Study to know and understand the Mass like never before. You will see, perhaps for the first time, why you say what you say, and do what you do every week at Mass. The words and gestures will be seen in a new light, leading you to a richer, more fruitful worship experience. Cost for materials: $26.95 (plus tax & shipping). Call Kathy at 316-351-1683 or via email: chgorootskm@gmail.com, Sign up by January 4. Tuesdays at St. Paul University Parish Conference Room, 1810 N Roosevelt St, Wichita, KS 67208.

FEAST OF THE HOLY INNOCENTS—DEC. 28

MEMORIAL MASS FOR FAMILIES WHO HAVE LOST A CHILD

The Feast of the Holy Innocents
Tuesday, December 28th

St. Catherine of Siena's Respect Life Ministry welcomes all parishioners, especially parents and families who have lost a child through miscarriage, abortion, stillbirth or infant death, to a special memorial Mass at: 5:30pm on Tuesday, Dec. 28th

A special ceremony for families who have experienced loss will take place after Communion and a reception in the gathering space will follow.

In the event, King Herod the Great ordered the execution of all young male children in the village of Bethlehem, so as to avoid the loss of his throne to a newborn "King of the Jews", whose birth had been relayed to him by magi. He was called Herod "the Great," king of Judea, but was unpopular with his people because of his connection with the Romans and his religious indifference.

Only because Joseph had been warned by a dream that this would happen and accordingly fled with his wife and Jesus to Egypt was the Savior spared (Matthew 2:13-15). The other innocent children were put to the sword. This is one of the seven sorrows of Mary: to realize the hatred others would have of her Son and Lord; to understand that saving her own baby led to the death of others.

Our Christmas joy is tempered today by a feeling of sadness. But the Church looks principally to the glory of the children, of these innocent victims, whom she shows us in heaven following the Lamb wherever He goes.

LOSE SOMETHING? Do you think you might have left something in the church building? The Lost and Found is located in the Usher's Room. Hope St. Anthony helps you find what you're missing!
