HAPPY EASTER!

Each year during Holy Week the Press will roll out a number of stories casting doubt on Jesus Christ, the Resurrection and the church. These stories reflect the doubt of the religious leaders at the time of Christ. They attempted to incite the crowd to stone Jesus to death on a number of occasions because Jesus said he was "The Son of God" and "I Am".

The readings for the Easter season are the accounts of those who knew Jesus and witnessed his many miracles. Most importantly, they saw and spoke with Jesus following his death and resurrection. Their accounts are given to us, not so much to convince us of these events, but rather to affirm what we know through faith.

Faith is the Holy Spirit working in and through us to reveal the Son to us. Faith is nourished and grows through the reading of the Bible, sharing in the Lord's Supper, and Praying with and for the Christian community.

May Easter encourage and spur you on to an active and living faith.

Many thanks to those who contributed flowers for Easter. Also, thanks to those who provided meals during the past few weeks.

We are soon approaching Confirmation and First Communion. Thanks to our catechists who have helped prepare our young people for these special occasions.

God's Peace!

Fr. Joe

TAKE NOTE: NEXT Sunday, April 24 Confirmation will be celebrated DURING the 10:30am Mass at Sacred Heart. With 12 candidates along with their families and friends, approximately half of the church will be occupied. You may want to select a different Mass to attend if you would like to avoid crowds.

Jasmine Collins
& Jake Beirmaier

Something to ponder...a Gospel meditation

There are many stones in our paths that keep us from truly living and being free. Some of these boulders have been there for a very long time. They have been there so long that they have even settled into the soil of our lives with other weeds, vines, and compacted soil keeping them firmly in place. We find them hard to move and trying to do so can be exhausting. What are these suffocating albatrosses that keep us so tethered and immobile? They are many things.

They are past childhood wounds and hurts which stem from disappointment, rejection, or abuse. People may have told us we were unwanted, the world is frightening, that there are only some acceptable feelings you can have and others you cannot. We may have tried to love someone or struggled to figure out how and were met with rejection. Maybe we trusted someone completely and were betrayed. We come to life collecting barnacles that begin to attach to other barnacles and before you know it, we have a mass of solid matter blocking our vision and keeping us from moving. We live in fear. We are afraid of losing what we have, afraid that the future will be empty, afraid that we won't succeed and even more afraid that we will not be loved. There is so much fear. Didn't Jesus tell us not to worry and to not be afraid? Either we believe in the message of Easter, or we don't!

Go confidently into the night. Walking with God you will find the light and strength you need. Often without even knowing, God will move those boulders and stumbling blocks that bind us and, with putting one foot in front of the other and looking forward, we will move. The resurrection of Christ is really all about receiving the gifts of trust and faith and doing new things. The rocks that bind us keep us spinning the same wheels and doing the same things. When was the last time you threw caution to the wind and actually did something totally out of character and different? This is where we find God, in the spontaneous, the adventurous, the fun, and the creative choices we make! God is not boring and stuck. God is exciting and engaging. Jesus Christ is risen from the dead! Find a way to trust that this is true and live. ©LPI
