SPRING HAPPENINGS!

This second Sunday of Easter is also called Divine Mercy Sunday. We are encouraged to pray the Chaplet, which is available online or at our Divine Mercy Shrine at Sacred Heart. The Divine Mercy Chaplet is prayed after Wednesday morning Masses.

Congratulations to our young people who will be confirmed at the 10:30am Mass this weekend. Pray for them and for those receiving their First Communion next weekend.

A RCIA/Baptism meeting will be held on Wednesday, May 18, beginning at 6:30pm in the Sacred Heart Parish Center. Anyone expecting to have their first child baptized in the near future should attend. Also welcome are any adults who want to join the church and complete their sacraments of initiation. Books for preparation are available ahead of time for these sacraments. Contact Fr. Joe.

When planning ahead it is always difficult to choose what are the best times for Holy Day Masses. In Minnesota we cannot easily predict the weather. We have learned when scheduling weekday Masses of special events that the same people who attend the morning Masses attend in the later hours. We do not see a big influx of people in the evening hours.

Pastors have also learned that regardless of the size of the parish, the same 10 people show up. For the reason, we mostly schedule Masses to fit our "regulars" schedules.

Please continue to pray the Rosary for the Peace of Ukraine and a change of hearts among the Russian military.

God's Peace!

Fr. Joe

It's Tootsie Roll Weekend! The Knights of Columbus are looking for your support in help to raise money for children with disabilities. Look for a KC member at the entrances as you leave church this weekend!

Religious Education Notes

The last week of Rel. Ed classes are THIS week! Join us we celebrate the year with the Annual Sloppy Joe meal on Wednesday, served from 4:30-7pm in Margaret Mary Hall. Many thanks to all of the adults who shared their time with our youth this year, and also to the April Activity Group for hosting the meal.

Saintly fun-fact this week: We don't know a lot of St. Salome, but what we do know is plenty! Salome is one of the women mentioned in the New Testament of the bible. She was the wife of Zebedee and the mother of TWO apostles—James and John. Not only that, but she was one of the women who followed Jesus and was standing with Mary at the foot of the cross when Jesus died. All of this make Salome a very special lady! The little we know about her tells us she was a good wife and mother, and a faithful follower of Jesus. What else do we need to know?

Some saints have done daring deeds, braved torture, fought crusades or built churches. But Salome's a lady who simply did her best to be a good person. She must have been a brave person not to run away when Jesus was crucified. So a saint can be an ordinary person who loves God and shows it by the way she or he lives an ordinary, everyday life.

Something to ponder...a Gospel meditation

Even Thomas struggles to remove his boulder! Being very pragmatic and determined, he wants to see the risen Christ for himself! Thomas's boulder is heavy with mistrust. Many of ours are too. A certain amount of skepticism is good, as it can save us from being duped or misled. But we can become so skeptical of things that it erodes our ability to trust anything we see or hear. Skepticism can actually be a well-disguised defense mechanism that we use to prevent us from being hurt or perceived as a fool. Having too much ego protection is a real risk. Thomas, because of the boulder blocking his vision, could not even trust the word of his friends.

Boulders are hard to move. It's difficult to seek change or take a risk, especially when we are so afraid to be vulnerable or reluctant to trust another's word. When we are closed minded, overly pragmatic, unwilling to see things in a different way, stubborn or defensive, it is difficult to be surprised by God and stretched. We need to be less guarded, self-assured, and self-absorbed. God cannot break into the ordinary moments of our lives and inspire us when we cling to doubt. If we are going to discover resurrection faith, we have to believe that what the witnesses say is true, especially when they are credible. We also have to trust that the risen Christ is alive in us, too!

While the first witnesses to the resurrection have faded into history, there are many others who have come after them. They continue to inspire by walking the talk of faith. They are the martyrs who offer their lives for the Gospel, the simple holy people in our communities who cling so steadfastly to their faith, those who have touched despair and found new hope and the ones who, even in spite of ridicule, still pursue their hunger and thirst for God. They are our friends, acquaintances, biblical heroes, and saints, and many others who are convinced that they have seen the Lord! The risen Christ may not surprise us with the same kind of visit as he did the first disciples, but God finds other ways. All we have to do is open our eyes, remove whatever is preventing us from seeing and believing and exclaim:

"My Lord and my God!" ©LPI
