KEEPING THE FAITH

Many thanks to our Directors of Faith Formation, Paula Johnson and Sue Heidelberger, for their help with our Religious Education program.

Thanks also to Roger LaSota, our Confirmation catechist, and all of our catechists who gave their time and energy throughout this past year.

And to the April Activity Group for the Catechist Appreciation Meal for the catechists, students and families this past week—a huge thank you!

Congratulations to those confirmed last Sunday, and to those making their First Communion this weekend. We pray you will remain at the table of Eucharist for a life time.

In the gospel of John, Jesus appeared to the disciples on the Sea of Tiberias while they were fishing. At first they caught nothing. Jesus told them to throw their nets over the other side. They brought in 153 fish.

We are not sure why this number, but we know it was important and had some significance to the apostles. Perhaps it will be revealed to us in time.

Jesus asks Peter three times if he loves him. Peter's three-fold answer is a reform of the three times he denied knowing Jesus before resurrection. Peter became the shepherd of the church and cared for the disciples as Jesus had.

Please continue to pray the Rosary for the Peace of Ukraine and for the future bishop of our diocese.

God's Peace!

Fr. Joe

Saintly fun-fact this week: How would you like the name “the less”? In this case it means younger, which is better than being less! James was an important follower of Jesus and is believed to be the author of the Epistle of James in the New Testament. Pretty good for someone know as “the less”. Do you ever feel “less” - less smart than a friend, less rich than your neighbor, or less energetic than the rest of your family? Well, don’t let “less” get you down! Most people have this feeling sometimes or on some days. When you do, remember God thinks you are the “most”!

Something to ponder...a Gospel meditation

Could it be God’s image has become so soiled and distorted that it is hard for us to see it? Our self-serving agendas have done a great job twisting God’s image into what profits us. We want our agenda to be God’s agenda and use prayer as the convincing leverage we need. Worse still, our success and egocentric agenda often erases God’s image completely, replacing it with our own. St. Oscar Romero instructs us that the Son of Man “dies on the cross to cleanse God’s image, which is soiled in today’s humanity, a humanity so enslaved, so selfish, so sinful.” Striving to preserve control of our destinies at all costs, we fail to see the risen suffering servant, the Christ, standing right beside us.

Jesus, who suffered and died on a cross and was raised from the dead, corrects our soiled image of God. He shows us God as God is, not who we want to make God to be. God is the God of the poor, the weak, and the marginalized. He is the God who tenderly caresses us when we are suffering and hurting, assuring us that all will be safe and well. He is the God of equity, peace, justice, and compassion who wants happiness for each of His children, desiring their wellbeing and success. God goes where men and women are afraid to go, sitting with the lost, the broken, and the sorrowing. St. Oscar Romero challenges us to illuminate with “Christ’s light ... even the most hideous caverns of the human person: torture, jail, plunder, want, chronic illness. The oppressed must be saved.” The resurrection calls us to be God’s microphone, a messenger, and a prophet (St. Oscar Romero).

Using eyes which see beyond the limited constructs and desires of our world, we can see the true and real Jesus standing before us, calling us to transformation and change. Asking us more than once, “do you love me?” We are beckoned to give an answer. Answering in the affirmative, it is now our task to feed the sheep and the lambs who belong to God. In short, equipped with the power of the resurrection and a corrected image of God our task is to make things better, brighter, holier, more life-giving, and just for all of God’s children. Considering our choices, our interactions, our philosophies, and aspirations, how can we do this? ©LPI
