THE GIVE AND TAKE OF WORKING TOGETHER

May 11-13, will be remembered as the great flood of 2022. It was of epic proportions which remind us of the flood of Noah's day. It may also be a warning of what is to come in the future, weather wise.

The first major council of the church was the Council of Jerusalem. The apostles met together and decided what tenets of the Jewish faith the gentile converts would need to accept. They reached a consensus that gentile converts should be required to "abstain from meat sacrifices to idols, from blood, from meats of strangled animals, and from unlawful marriage."

These regulations were to avoid any type of pagan practices or emperor worship.

Since then the church has held several major councils to determine the direction of the church in contemporary society. Vatican II was the most recent ecumenical (meaning bishops of the whole world) council. The bishops called for updating of church rites and the liturgy of the Eucharist.

Consensus is a messy way to govern. It requires hours, and possibly days, of discussion back to forth. It doesn't always bring the results we want. However, it remains part of the democratic process and something we hope the bishops remember to strive for in their synod discussions.

Thank you to those who returned your synod questionnaire. Thank to you to our pastoral council (committee) members who contribute their time and talents to guide our parishes. In the future, the Trustees of our three parishes will be the core of the ACC committee.

Please share the word with our summer visitors about the Mass changes.

God's Peace!

Every 2 seconds someone in the US needs blood—and YOU can help! There will be a Red Cross Blood Drive on Tuesday, May 31, from 12:30-6:30pm at Glenwood Lutheran Church. Call 1-800-733-2767 or visit RedCrossBlood.org. Sponsor code: Glenwood.

Have you looked at your church directory lately? Where did the 6 years go? How many phone numbers are still current? And my how those children have changed (not the adults as much though.....)! Well in late August we will begin taking pictures for an updated Pictorial Directory. If you can assist in scheduling by contacting people, contact Katherine in the church office.

Yikes—Retirement has been rough on the number of volunteers we have at church. In order to keep things running smoothly, we are hopeful for new recruits, and want to make the time minimal as everyone has busy schedules. If you can help in any way (ushering, Eucharistic Ministry, reading, singing, counting money) once every 4-6 weeks it would be AWESOME! Contact Katherine or Fr. Joe with questions or if You can share your time.

Religious Education Notes

Saintly fun-fact this week: Here's a saint who had a bad-tempered husband and mother-in-law, plus a smart but lazy son. What a combination! In spite of all of this, or maybe because of this, Monica became a saint—and her son did too. No matter how difficult things were at home, Monica was always patient and sweet to everyone, and she prayed constantly for her husband and son to change. After many years, her husband finally followed her example, but her son would not. Monica's son Augustine left their home in North Africa and traveled to Italy where he was very successful, had many friends, but lived an evil life. Monica continued to pray for him and after 17 years of prayer, Augustine not only changed his life but was baptized and became one of the greatest saints of the Church.

Monica did not become famous because her son was famous. She became a saint because of her patience, prayers, and persistence. She did not give up. Today people expect prayers to be answered instantly. But God does not always answer in a hurry. So don't rush God. When you pray for something, be patient, be persistent, and don't give up!

Something to ponder...a Gospel meditation

Jesus tells his disciples, “Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you.” The peace that Jesus gives is far different than the kind that comes from the absence of war, conflict, or affliction. The peace that God offers is found alongside suffering and hardship, not necessarily in their absence. St. Teresa of Avila offers us a bit of wisdom regarding peace: “May today there be peace within. May you trust God that you are exactly where you are meant to be. May you not forget the infinite possibilities that are born of faith. May you use those gifts that you have received and pass on the love that has been given to you. May you be content knowing you are a child of God. Let this presence settle into your bones and allow your soul the freedom to sing, dance, praise, and love. It is there for each and every one of us.”

In order for us to experience the divine peace Jesus offers, we have to allow God's presence to settle into our bones! It is only when this happens that we can be truly taught by the Holy Spirit to discern the true path to peace and find ourselves with untroubled hearts. The world and our lives are so unpredictable and changeable. If we look for a source of lasting and real peace only there, our search will never be satisfied. Something will always unsettle and disturb us. The Jewish disciples could really relate to what Jesus was saying about peace (shalom). They already knew it was more a matter of achieving wholeness and wellbeing than anything else.

Wholeness and wellbeing are precisely what is uncovered when we begin to really see and know the height, depth, and breadth of God's presence and promise. The elegance of God's Divine life flows through our blood and the marrow in our bones. It is that close and deep. As we breathe in and exhale God's life, peace becomes what we know within and what is exhaled out. This remains in the midst of intense conflict, persecution, suffering, rejection, and even death. ©LPI
