EXCERPTS FROM THE LECTIONARY FOR MASS (2001, 1986, 1970 CCD, ICLP)

Eternal Father,

*I offer You the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your dearly beloved Son,
Our Lord, Jesus Christ,
in atonement for our sins
and those of the whole world.*

BYTES OF FAITH

By FATHER STEVEN J. McLOUD

Today's Gospel, presenting Jesus' "inaugural address" in the synagogue of Nazareth and outlining his theology of total liberation, marks a great moment in Jesus' ministry. The Scripture readings for today focus our attention on the importance and liberating power of the Word of God as "sacramental," making God present in our midst. The readings challenge us to listen to the Word, accept it into our hearts, then put it into practice as we live out our lives, thus liberating ourselves and others from all types of bondage.

We need to receive Christ's freedom, live it and pass it on to others: As members of Christ's Mystical Body, we share in the freeing, saving mission of Jesus. But we are captives of sin. We need Christ to set us free. We are often blinded by our evil habits, addictions and need for financial security. Once we receive true liberation from Christ, we have to share it with those we encounter in our daily lives, families, neighborhoods, parishes and workplaces.

We need to let the power of the Holy Spirit fill us, and then be ready to have miracles done through us. Today's Gospel tells us that Jesus performed miracles because he was filled with the power of the Holy Spirit. Let us be ready to become Spirit-filled instruments of Christ's saving freedom.

Prayer for Vocations

God our Father, we beg You for an increase in religious vocations. Help Your people offer their lives in service to You. Let them hear Your Spirit's invitation and awaken in their hearts a desire to respond with courage, generosity and joy as priests, deacons and consecrated religious, as we entrust in Your care all who seek to do Your will. We ask this through Christ our Lord. +Amen.
