Divine Mercy Sunday

Peace be with You!

Let all pious men and all lovers of God rejoice in the splendor of this. With this salutation, our Lord greets his disciples after his resurrection. Many things are significant about this greeting, but I want to take a moment to reflect upon an aspect of peace from the perspective of Divine Mercy that we celebrate today.

Peace is the fruit of Christ's mercy and reconciliation established by his paschal mystery. His mercy has not only forgiven us our sins, but also restored us to a peaceful relationship with our Heavenly Father. Through Divine Mercy, the obstacles of sins that made us enemies with God and prevented any true relationship have been eradicated. Friendship has been renewed with its foundation built upon love and peace.

Therefore, on this Sunday of Divine Mercy, we are taught that peace is the fruit of mercy. We can recognize this fact at the conclusion of the Sacrament of Confession, when after receiving the mercy of God, we hear the priest say, "The Lord has freed you from your sins. Go in Peace."

We are called to be peacemakers through the beatitudes Christ taught us. It is not an option; rather it is our life as disciples of Christ. If we are to be true disciples and true peacemakers, it must begin with imitating the Divine Mercy of Christ.

At the conclusion of Mass, the Sacrifice of Mercy and Reconciliation, we are commanded by God to be sent out with the peace of Christ and to bring that peace to others. This peace begins with the mercy we give to others, imitating the mercy God has given to us. May we learn to let go and forgive our past hurts, such as the gossip and slander others have said, or the hurtful action of a friend or co-worker or even family member. May we learn to give mercy through a kind word, a warm smile, or a loving act of charity. For through forgiveness and acts of love, we imitate Christ's paschal mystery and help establish His peace which every human heart desires to receive and give.

May the "peace of Christ" be with you and keep you safe as we place our trust in Him!

Rev. Andrew Heiman

THE YEAR OF THE EUCHARIST EUCHARISTIC MIRACLES

The Angel of Peace, Portugal 1916

An angel appeared three to the shepherds of Fatima to prepare them for the future apparitions of Our Lady and elevate them to a supernatural state with Holy Communion. During the third apparition, the angel gave Lucia a Host from which drops of Blood were falling into the chalice. Francisco and Jacinta, not having yet made their First Holy Communion, were given the contents of the chalice. In this apparition the angel said to them: "Eat and drink the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, horribly outraged by ungrateful men. Offer reparation for their sins and console your God."

First Apparition of the Angel

"We began to see, in the distance, a light whiter than snow in the form of a young man, quite transparent, and as brilliant as crystal in the rays of the sun. As he came near we were able to see his features: a young man about 14 or 15 years old and very beautiful. We were surprised and quite taken aback. We did not say a word. He reached us and said: "Do not be afraid. I am the angel of peace. Pray with me." He knelt, bending his forehead to the ground. With a supernatural impulse we did the same, repeating the words we heard him say: 'My God, I believe, I adore, I hope, and I love You. I ask pardon for those who do not believe, do not adore, do not hope, and do not love You.'

"Then arising, he said, 'Pray in this way. The hearts of Jesus and Mary are attentive to your prayers.' And he disappeared. The supernatural atmosphere that he left us in was so intense we were for a long time unaware of our own existence..."

Second Apparition of the Angel

"The angel said to us: 'What are you doing? You must pray! Pray very much! The hearts of Jesus and Mary have merciful designs on you. You must constantly offer your prayers and sacrifices to God, the Most High.'

"How are we to make sacrifices?" I asked

"In every possible way, offer sacrifice to God in reparation for the sins by which He is offended, and in supplication for the conversion of sinners. In this way you will bring peace to your country. I am the Guardian Angel of Portugal. Above all, bear and accept with submission the sufferings God will send you.' And he disappeared... These words of the angel cut into our spirits like a light, making us understand who God is, how He loves us, and how He wants us to love Him; the value of sacrifice and how it pleases Him; and how sacrifice can convert sinners."

Third Apparition of the Angel

"We saw the angel holding in his left hand a chalice, and suspended in the air above it was a Host from which drops of Blood fell into the chalice. Leaving the chalice and the Host suspended in the air, he prostrated himself near us and repeated three times the prayer: 'Most Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, I adore You profoundly, and I offer You the Most Precious Body, Blood, Sould and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all the tabernacles of the world, in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifference by which He is offended. And by the infinite merits of His Most Sacred Heart and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg the conversion of poor sinners.' After that he rose and took again in his hands the chalice and the Host. The Host he gave to me, and the contents of the chalice he gave to Jacinta and Francisco, saying at the same time, 'Take and drink the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, terribly outraged by the ingratitude of men. Offer reparation for their offenses and console your God.' ... Then he disappeared."

Prayer Fully Alive: Lectio Divina Aid

Gospel Reading: John 20:19-31

first movement EVANGELIZATION to encounter

Evangelization is an encounter with the living God. In fact, it is through the Divine encounter that we become fully alive. "The ultimate goal is not health or wellness, but the encounter with Jesus ... He alone frees us from evil and heals our hearts. Only an encounter with him can save, can make life full and beautiful" (Pope Francis, Homily on the Occasion of the Canonization of St. John Henry Newman, 13 October 2019).

Questions to assist your encounter with the Lord

The disciples were gathered together but Thomas was elsewhere. Imagine for a moment where Thomas could've been and what this time after the death of Jesus was like for him.

Why do you think Jesus' glorified body contained the nail marks from his crucifixion and the stab wound in his side?

second movement DISCIPLESHIP to follow

In Discipleship we respond, fiat, to his challenging yet loving invitation. St. John Paul II wrote " ...Mary as Mother became the first 'disciple' of her Son, the first to whom he seemed to say: 'Follow me...'"

Questions to assist your encounter with the Lord

Like Thomas, we all have areas of doubt in our lives. How are you struggling to trust the Lord? Can you share this area of doubt with Him?

The disciples gathered together in the upper room out of fear of the Jews. How can you relate to this feeling of fear? Where do you need to hear the Lord say to you, "Peace be with you?"

third movement STEWARDSHIP to respond

Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God's gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor. "We do well also to remember that the process of lectio divina is not concluded until it arrives at action (actio), which moves the believer to make his or her life a gift for others in charity" (Pope Benedict XVI).

Questions to assist your encounter with the Lord

"Receive the Holy Spirit." In baptism and in confirmation we receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. What is your relationship like with Him? How have you experienced the Holy Spirit working in and through you? "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." Are there any areas of your life in which you have said yes but the Lord hasn't necessarily sent you there?

Where is the Lord sending you?
