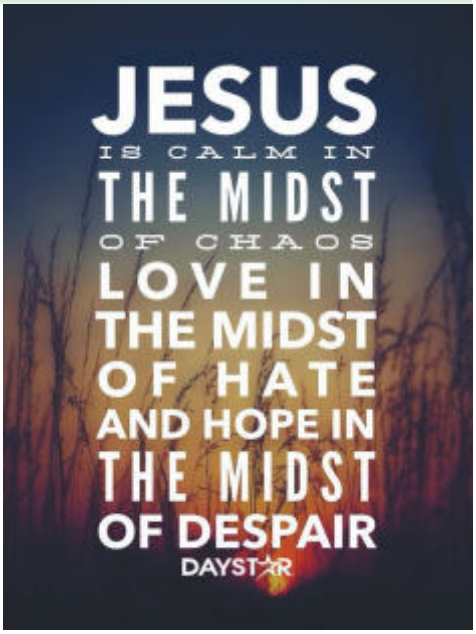
Thoughts from Fr. Weldon



Jesus brings freedom from every evil

As he travels to the next village, the healings Jesus performed manifest his love. He shows that the Kingdom of God is close at hand by restoring men and women to their full spiritual and physical integrity. ... these cures are signs that guide us towards Christ's message. They guide us towards God and make us understand that man's truest and deepest illness is the absence of God, who is the source of truth and love." Sometimes I think that losing my physical health is the end. This covid crisis has made that very real to us. We do so much to safeguard our physical health that we may not be thinking of our spiritual health. At funerals people wear masks so as not to get the virus. Only the dead do not get sick. Yet, it is the absence of God that is a deep illness. Somewhere in in the past I realized I need to preach to the living at the funeral. Each person who attends a funeral brings a story and often there is pain. I don't know the stories, but it is easy to guess there are rough chapters. Each of us is finite in our abilities to think and live, but we are made for something infinite, and that is God's love. It is the absence of the truth and love of Christ that debilitates and cripples a person. "Only reconciliation with God can give us true healing, true life, because a life without love and without truth would not be life. The Kingdom of God is precisely the presence of truth and love and is healing in the depths of our being. The preaching and the cures of Jesus always go together and form one message of hope and salvation." (Benedict XVI Angelus 8 Feb 2009) When Christ enters a village he not only cures a cripple, he expels evil and gives hope. Christ is about healing the whole person, which means the body, soul and mind. This includes the anger, fears, wounds of the heart. The evil one can bring a chaos of mind and body to even the most well-intentioned of persons. It is only the grace coming from the truth and love of Christ that heals.

Serve Without Counting the Cost

Fiat, as you know, means "let it be done." We have reflected on the fiat of Mary and several of the disciples, but today's Gospel illustrates that of Jesus Himself. After an exciting day at the synagogue, where Jesus expelled a fairly nasty demon, He likely wanted a peaceful dinner and rest. Instead, He was met with Peter's mother-in-law, who needed healing. Then came someone else and before long, the whole town was at the door seeking some sort of healing from Jesus. He didn't get rest. He didn't get that peaceful dinner. And He didn't seem to care. Jesus put aside His own will to do the work of God, in spite of His human needs. When He grew weary, He retreated, prayed, and got back to work. Jesus gives us an incredible example of fiat in today's gospel. He serves us without counting the cost. May we all do the same in turn.

St. Faustina's Prayer for Priests

O my Jesus, I beg you on behalf of the whole Church: Grant it love and the light of your Spirit, and give power to the words of priests so that hardened hearts might be brought to repentance and return to you, O Lord. Lord, give us holy priests; you yourself maintain them in holiness. O Divine and Great High Priest, may the power of your mercy accompany them everywhere and protect them from the devil's traps and snares which are continually being set for the souls of priests. May the power of your mercy, O Lord, shatter and bring to naught all that might tarnish the sanctity of priests, for you can do all things.
