Drawing for an American Flag

The Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus will be holding a drawing next week for an American flag. Please stop by the back of the church after Mass next week to enter your name in the drawing. One entry per family please. There will be one winner from each parish. Good luck and remember Flag Day is June 14th!

Electronic Giving

There are a number of parishioners who have signed up for automatic giving (Electronic Funds Transfer). These forms can be picked up at the parish office or can be found on the parish website homepage.

Would You like to Join the Parish?

If you would like to become a member of St. Joseph or St. Francis Xavier, talk to Fr. Drees after Mass so that he can personally give you a parish registration form.

Corpus Christi Sunday

We celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. This Feast is more commonly called by its Latin title Corpus Christi, which means "the Body of Christ."

St. Joseph's Summer Concrete Work

After getting some bids and talking with the trustees, the front of St. Joseph's is going to be redone this summer. The concrete will be pulled out with new concrete poured in its place. The new layout will open up the space. A sketch of the new design is on the parish website and on St. Joseph's bulletin boards.

Summer Social Events at St Joseph's

On Thursday, June 24 there will be an 11:00am Mass followed by a potluck. I'll supply the burgers and hotdogs.

On Saturday, July 17 the Wannigan Day Parade gets to St. Joseph's at around 6:30pm. The Knights will be manning a burger and hot dog booth in the front of St. Joseph's.

On Wednesday, August 4 there will be Adoration and Benediction from 5pm-6pm followed by a potluck. I'll supply the burgers, hotdogs, and smores ingredients.

On Sunday, August 15 after the 11:00am Mass there will be a potluck. I'll supply the burgers and hotdogs.

Sign-ups for the potlucks will come out a few weeks before each potluck. You will be able to sign up online or after Mass.

Blessings,
Fr. Drees

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify
you, we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

2nd Reading: Hebrews 9:11-15

Brothers and sisters:

When Christ came as high priest of the good things that have come to be, passing through the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made by hands, that is, not belonging to this creation, he entered once for all into the sanctuary, not with the blood of goats and calves but with his own blood, thus obtaining eternal redemption.

For if the blood of goats and bulls and the sprinkling of a heifer's ashes can sanctify those who are defiled so that their flesh is cleansed, how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself unblemished to God, cleanse our consciences from dead works to worship the living God. For this reason he is mediator of a new covenant: since a death has taken place for deliverance from transgressions under the first covenant, those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance.

Gospel: Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrificed the Passover lamb, Jesus' disciples said to him, "Where do you want us to go and prepare for you to eat the Passover?"

He sent two of his disciples and said to them, "Go into the city and a man will meet you, carrying a jar of water. Follow him. Wherever he enters, say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says, "Where is my guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"'"

Then he will show you a large upper room furnished and ready. Make the preparations for us there."

The disciples then went off, entered the city, and found it just as he had told them; and they prepared the Passover. While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, "Take it; this is my body." Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it.

He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many.

Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

Then, after singing a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

1st Reading: Exodus 24:3-8

When Moses came to the people and related all the words and ordinances of the LORD, they all answered with one voice, "We will do everything that the LORD has told us." Moses then wrote down all the words of the LORD and, rising early the next day, he erected at the foot of the mountain an altar and twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel.

Then, having sent certain young men of the Israelites to offer holocausts and sacrifice young bulls as peace offerings to the LORD, Moses took half of the blood and put it in large bowls; the other half he splashed on the altar.

Taking the book of the covenant, he read it aloud to the people, who answered, "All that the LORD has said, we will heed and do."

Then he took the blood and sprinkled it on the people, saying, "This is the blood of the covenant that the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words of his."

Responsorial Psalm: 116

I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
