Covid Communion Regulations for Good Shepherd

As of June 21, based on CDC data, Clay County is ranked Low. The message remains the same: masks can be an effective tool for helping prevent the spread of COVID-19. You may choose to wear a mask no matter what community level you are in.

With that information, Communion will continue as follows:

Two lines coming forward in center aisle of the Nave. Please use hand sanitizer before receiving Communion.

The Deacon will provide Communion to the transepts and those in the rear of church who are not able to come forward in the Communion Procession.

Those wishing to receive Communion on the tongue, please come forward at the end of the line.

Good Shepherd Prayer Chain

Do you have a need for prayer? Our parish prayer partners will keep your intention in their daily prayer.

The requests we can pass along are for specific needs for yourself, or someone you know in need of prayer. If you're calling for another person, you must obtain explicit consent from them to have their intention included. Call the parish office (532-4344) if you need some prayer.

BULLETIN AND ANNOUNCEMENT ITEMS

Deadline for bulletin items is Wednesday morning of the previous week. Items must be written and brought to the office or e-mailed to kim@gscemo.org. All bulletin articles are subject to approval by Fr. Terrell. On holiday weekends, bulletin items must be sent to the office two weeks in advance of publication.

All announcements to be read before Mass must be submitted to Matthew Baumler no later than noon on Thursday of that week.

And to another he said, "Follow me." In every moment of every day, in every circumstance and experience, God is calling us. We can easily get distracted and not hear it or simply ignore it, pretending it wasn't even heard. When we do hear it and favorably respond, there are some conditions that must be met. Jesus makes it clear that once we say yes to his invitation, we must stay focused and forge ahead. We cannot keep looking behind or worry about unfinished business. There are some tasks, and discipleship is one, that require our full devotion.

There are many "masters" vying for our attention. We need something or someone to give us direction. Human nature requires it. Our motives and actions reveal what has our allegiance. It is tempting to give ourselves to masters that lure us with intriguing promises. When given the choice between a "master" that promises worldly success, abundant wealth, status, privilege, and security versus a "master" that asks for self-sacrifice, hardship, suffering, ridicule, and death, to whom do we go? While the promise of immediate pleasure is enticing, there is always a catch. For all that secular masters can promise, they always keep us looking behind, checking on ourselves, second guessing choices, calculating options, and being slaves to excessive worry. Our guard can never come down. Only one master really promises life: Jesus Christ. Hearing his call, we either trust him or we don't.

Saying yes to following Christ does come with a risk. But it also comes with the brightness of future hopes and dreams. There is no need to keep looking behind. Sins are forgiven and regrets serve no effective purpose. God is not there. He's moved beyond all that stuff. God is in the today and the tomorrow and what he can continually do with our daily affirmation to follow Him. All we need to do is be obedient. St. Gianna Molla is credited with saying, "The stillness of prayer is the most essential condition for fruitful action. Before all else, the disciple kneels down." Begin with prayer. We will not only hear God's call but find the courage to trust that He will guide us where we need to be. God uses us in the most ordinary of ways through the simple daily expression of our lives. ©LPi
