Make a Friend
Be a Friend
Bring a Friend to Christ

What makes us feel secure? Many people look to tangible forms of security that will safeguard their livelihood and prepare for their future. We tend to associate security with things: the accumulation of goods and possessions, retirement funds, savings accounts, and substantial incomes. While acquiring these promises a life with less anxiety and worry, we actually find ourselves more preoccupied and consumed with their growth and preservation. We worry more! We can easily become quasi-hoarders, consumed with obtaining more tangible crutches. Our minds and hearts are always restless, and we never seem to be at peace.

Why do we so easily give our self-worth, value, and sense of security over to things? God certainly does not deny us the pursuit of a productive and enjoyable life but where do we draw the line? A sense of well-being and happiness can easily get deferred to sometime "in the future" while we continue to wrestle with the toils of today. There is no guarantee that there will be an earthly tomorrow and all of the frenzy we bring to securing our state in life will be for naught. When we are called from this world, will we even know where to begin to look for the tranquility and repose our souls so desperately need?

We cannot be hoarders, pursuers of vanity, or greedy. They just don't work as they are too dependent on things that can fall apart. Rather than always feeling the need for more, we need to learn how to be grateful for what we have. By learning to look inward we can learn how to live lives of faithful service to others. "Happiness can only be achieved by looking inward and learning to enjoy whatever life has, and this requires transforming greed into gratitude (St. John Chrysostom)." We all need to be good stewards of what has been entrusted to our care. Grateful hearts recognize the true source of what we have and realize that our true treasure lies not in what matters to us but to God. ©LPI

Got Questions? Good Shepherd's RCIA can help!

- What is Truth?
- Who is God?
- Who is Jesus?
- Where do I fit in?
- Why the Catholic Church?

RCIA is the process for adults to discover the answers to these faith-based questions and many, many more. If you or someone you know is looking for answers, or want to learn more about the Catholic Church this could be the program for you. Sessions start in September of 2022. Please call the parish office for more information at 816-532-4344.

New Members Welcome!

We would like to recognize new parishioners to Good Shepherd. These families officially registered with our parish during the month of July.

We are so excited to welcome:

Zach & Katie Daughtrey
Mike & Corrine Hans
James & Mikel Russell
Samantha White

A Note from Kim Krueger, DRE

This year we will be participating in a Team Building experience for our Religious Programs AND Good Shepherd Parish. I'm in the process of coordinating with an amazing organization called "Sleep In Heavenly Peace" (You can find information about this organization at: <https://www.shpbeds.org/>.) SHP believes that no child should sleep on the floor. Our day will encompass creating beds that would eventually be given to kiddos in need. Here's a link to a video that shares a bit more information for SHP. (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=w60r6vyh75g>)

SHP brings all of the materials needed and we would build! I'm looking at a Saturday in Mid-September or early to mid-October and doesn't conflict with scheduled breaks for the school district.

The activity is for 8 years old to adult. (Kiddos under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.) Right now, I'm in the planning stage, but wanted to get the word out that this is an incredible opportunity for our kiddos and our parish to work together for a great cause!

I would love to see everyone come out and help support our Saturday build day! Stay tuned - more details coming!
