SAINT OF THE WEEK

ST VINCENT FERRER

FEAST DAY APRIL 5

St. Vincent Ferrer was a Dominican Friar who lived during the 14th century. He spent his time strengthening the Church through preaching, missionary work, teaching, and serving as a confessor and advisor. Vincent made many unsuccessful efforts to end the Western Schism through his apostolic ministry. Even though his efforts were unsuccessful, he became a devoted missionary.

Patron Saint of builders.

St. Vincent Ferrer, pray for us

20 HOURS OF THE STATIONS

KEEPING COMPANY WITH THE LORD

Sign-up Now for 20 Hours of the Stations. From the conclusion of Mass on Holy Thursday, marking the moment Jesus' arrest thru Good Friday service, the hour of his death, we keep a more intimate vigil with our Lord in walking the Stations of his Passion.

During these hours, someone will be present with our Lord through the hours of his passion, as we are present with him in adoration.

Signups are now in the main entrance of the church.

THE WAYS OF PERFECTION

WEEK 4: GENESIS AND THE STEPS OF CREATION

And God said, let there be light

In the beginning, when God created the heavens and the earth, He began by saying, "Let there be light." and there was light. This is also the beginning of the life of the soul when our eyes become opened to the light of Christ and He begins separating the light from the darkness. The account of creation shows us also the re-creation of the soul, leading us through the steps to return to His likeness and the way of perfection

We meet at 6pm in Fitzgerald Hall.

YOUTH CATECHESIS

AGES 6-7

The 6-7 year old Catechism students have begun discovering the connections between the Old and New Testament. For example: the Israelites receiving manna, the Bread from Heaven and its foreshadowing of the spiritual nourishment of receiving Christ in the Eucharist. This comes just in time, as some of the students are preparing for their First Communion on May 4th. In the classroom, the kids have been practicing how to make the sign of the cross at the holy water font, and how to genuflect. The students went on a 'field trip' to St. Mary's and took a tour of the church led by Mr. Aaron (Master of Ceremonies). This helped the students feel comfortable with what to expect when receiving their First Reconciliation and First Communion.

WELCOME DEACON

SHANE VOYLES

Over the past few weeks, you have likely seen Dcn. Shane visiting the parish. With deep gratitude I am pleased to announce that Bishop Johnston has appointed Dcn. Shane to assist the pastoral needs of St. Mary's beginning on April 1st.

In addition to serving at liturgies, he will be heavily involved in our ministry to the homebound, evangelization and a very welcomed and energetic presence in our community. If you have a chance ask him about his Outdoor Ministry—and he may also have a few fishing tips for you.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Responding to God

Have you ever heard someone say (or possibly even said something similar yourself): If you really believed that, you wouldn't . . . Whether it is belief in something that is going to happen—if you believed it is going to rain, you would be much more likely to take an umbrella with you—or belief in what is right and wrong—if one believes that it is important to go to Mass on Sunday, one is more likely to actually go to Mass. There are, of course, times when outside circumstances or our weakness to temptation comes up, so we may not always act according to our belief. But when all things are ordinary, we act in accordance with our beliefs.

What we believe is not simply a matter of what we think, it is how we see the world and what we acknowledge to be true. When it comes to our relationship with God, the Catechism begins by recognizing that what we believe is our response to God. He presents Himself to us, offers Himself to us and desires to be in union with us. We can easily enough imagine Him standing in front of us, revealing Himself to us; saying “Here I am. I love you?” To know and to love God is the purpose for which He created us. This is the goal of life and the start of the road toward perfection. The question becomes, what do you do when He presents and offers Himself to you? How does one respond to someone who reveals himself to us? This is belief.

Think of God's revelation of Himself as a gift. And truly this is what it is. Can you recall a time when you were confused and did not know what was going on? Or made there was someone whom you wanted to get to know, but they were secretive and distant. Or think of a time when a good friend or spouse, or possibly even a stranger, revealed a closely held secret to you. Many of us have felt gratitude, and maybe even said Thank you, for the sharing of such a secret—revealing one's self and the most intimate, most vulnerable parts of one's self is a true gift. This is what our God has done for us. He stand before us without a veil, and without clothes, saying here I am.

The faith that we believe is the acceptance of His gift and the foundation of our actions. Recall what it was that Simon had done immediately before Jesus named him Peter. When asked “Who do you say that I am.” Simon responded “You are the Son of God.” And Jesus named him Peter, the rock and foundation of His Church. Belief, that which we profess in the Creed, is the foundation. This is our response to God's presentation of Himself to us. To believe in what He was revealed to us and accept Him as He is, not as we sometimes would desire Him to be, or what others may say He is. This is why our Lord says the “whoever does not believe has already been condemned” because they have denied the gift.
