40 Hours Devotion

Already before the year 1550, the 40 Hours Devotion had been established by St. Philip Neri for the Confraternity of the Trinita dei Pellegrini in Rome. This happens to be the Church that was given to the Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter, so in a way we could say that the 40 Hours Devotion is particularly suited to a Fraternity parish such as Immaculate Conception.

The Traditional 40 Hours Devotion will be held at ICC beginning with Mass, Exposition and Procession Sunday February 14, at 1:00 p.m., and concluding with Mass, Procession, and Reposition at 6:45 a.m. on Tuesday, February 16. At least two adorers are needed for each of the 40 hours, so please sign up for one or more hours. Sign-up sheets are posted in the vestibule.

Thank You to Our Neighbor

Stoysich Meats has been a good neighbor to us for many years. They allow us to use their parking lot during Sunday Mass and at other times. In return, we need to be good neighbors also. Please don't park there during their business hours and please do patronize them.

Has Your Contact Information Changed?

Please inform the office any time your contact information (street address, phone number, email address, leaving the parish, etc.) changes. Please note that when a child turns 19 years old, they will be moved off their parents' profile and on to their own. It would be helpful if they would call or email the office with their current contact information as well. This will enable us to keep our records up-to-date. Thank you!

Palms

Last year's blessed palms are now being collected to make the ashes for Ash Wednesday. Please deposit them in the basket provided in the vestibule.

From Your Priests

Fr. John Rickert, FSSP, Pastor

In the Gospel reading today, we hear the parable of the sower and the seed, which is a parable that appears in all three Synoptic Gospels, that is, those according to St. Matthew, St. Mark, and St. Luke. Both the sower and the seed are Christ. Let us receive Him into our hearts and minds so that He will bear much fruit through us. It is a very commendable practice to read from Sacred Scripture every day.
