From Your Priests

Fr. Stephen Braun FSSP, Assistant Pastor

Many of the Masses of the Lenten season involve counterpoints between suffering and joy, present distress tempered with a promise of future blessedness. In the Mass two weeks ago, our Lord consoled three of His closest friends with a vision of His glory in the Transfiguration. Today's Mass, that of Laetare Sunday, bids us to rejoice in view of the heavenly Jerusalem, the heavenly city to come into which Christ wants to welcome us.

In the Gospel, our Lord, though, must flee to prevent the crowds from trying to make Him their earthly King.

Faced with all that our Lord promises us — both the crosses we must share in this life, as well as all the natural and supernatural joys and gifts He bestows upon us — we must be sure that we are seeking His heavenly kingdom, which is infinitely greater than all earthly consolations.

Women's Guild of St. Veronica and the Holy Face

On March 20th all women of the parish are welcome to attend the meeting of the Women's Guild of St. Veronica and the Holy Face. We will be meeting in the church basement from 2:00– 3:30p.m.

We will say the Stations of the Cross and Devotions to the Holy Face and then spend time together enjoying refreshments and each other's company.

This devotion is certainly the answer for our times as Our Lord revealed that it is the devotion that will bring an end to Communism!

We hope to see you there. Please feel free to bring a snack to share!
