From Your Priests

Fr. John Rickert, FSSP, Pastor

Easter shows us the ultimate triumph of life over death, especially in the supernatural order. But we can see it even on a natural level, as God often uses the natural order as a metaphor for the supernatural. Last year we were heavily burdened by a pandemic lockdown. This year, things are much more open and alive. Not all the way back to where we would like them to be, though even that can serve as a helpful reminder for us about a number of things. What I would like to emphasize this year is a strong sense of confidence, precisely if and because it is rooted in God.

Mass Time Change

Note that Masses next Sunday, April 11, are 7:00a.m., 10 a.m., 1:00p.m. There will be no 9:00a.m. or 11:00a.m. Masses.

Survey

From a researcher who is an old friend of Fr. Rickert's who is conducting a survey on the use of Latin at Mass: "All survey responses will be anonymous. Survey responses are coming from around the country, and the survey program I am using will not collect any identifying information nor IP addresses. The survey should take less than ten minutes. The link below is for the survey and includes a bit more information about the project."

Women's Day of Recollection

April 17th, beginning at the 9:00 a.m. Mass, there will be a day of recollection open to any women of ICC or neighboring parishes. After Mass we will retreat to the church basement for talks by Deacon Patrick Simons. There is a $15 donation for catered lunch and stipend. The topic will be: Good habits and positivity in order to grow in the spiritual life.

For more information, contact Leah Coffey at tandlcoffey@gmail.com or 402-202-5940 to register. Payments can be submitted after all masses on April 3 and 10th.
