From Your Priests

Fr. John Rickert, FSSP, Pastor

In today's Gospel we hear: "Whose sins you shall forgive, they are forgiven them; and whose sins you shall retain, they are retained." This shows us that Christ established the Sacrament of Confession. If it were sufficient simply to confess one's sins directly to God in order to receive forgiveness, the words about sins being retained would be of no effect. It is important to realize that both parts of what Our Lord says are medicinal. That is, a priest may have to defer or deny absolution for the sake of the person in the confessional. Let us pray to St. Giles that we make good confessions, and pray also for our own full conversion, so that we turn to God and away from sins.

Volunteers are encouraged to keep areas looking fresh. Once you've signed-up, you are free to get to work as soon as you are able. Call 402-714-2541 with any questions.
