THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God." - Mk 14:23-25

Lord, When I receive You In the Eucharist...

Lord, when I receive You in the Eucharist, I ask You, who am I, a mere mortal human being, who as such will never be able to fully understand your glory. I am limited by human thought and word. Oh, how do You deem me worthy to receive such a splendid gift? Who am I to receive heaven on earth, that I should not die, but continue to walk the earth carrying Your love with me? Only by Your grace alone am I able to receive You.

Lord, when I receive You in the Eucharist, I hold You near and dear to my heart so that nothing may be closer. I let You know that I truly love You above all things. My heart says that I strive to see You in everyone around me and I hold them near and dear to my heart.

Lord, when I receive You in the Eucharist, I say to God let your will be done. Take my body as a living sacrifice for You, that I may become an instrument of Your will, to fulfill your grand design.

Lord, when I receive You in the Eucharist, I bear witness to the sacrifice that Jesus makes for all of mankind. I see Him suffering in agony on the cross. I see how much pain You bear having to send Your son to redeem us from suffering eternal damnation due to our original sin. I see why it is so important to obey Your will and love You with all my heart, all my soul, all that I am.

Lord, when I receive You in the Eucharist, I look to the scriptures and bear witness to God's plan from Adam and Eve, Abraham and Isaac, the Israelites, and all the people throughout generations before Jesus. I acknowledge how the New Covenant suspends all of time and space, and ties all of these into an instance, through something so seemingly simple as bread.

Lord, when I receive You in the Eucharist, I acknowledge the need for an authoritative church to keep and safeguard Your word so that all may be one in Your Love at the eternal banquet.

Lord, when I receive You in the Eucharist, I bear the ultimate witness to Your creative power. I see how You have crafted this miracle from the beginning of time, so that we may join You in everlasting life. I see all the many ways that You have turned something so seemingly simple into the ultimate profession of Faith.

Lord, when I receive You in the Eucharist, I see that You gave me the opportunity to show to You that I believe in You and everything You have created and done for me amongst all worldly objects. I say to You O' Lord, my eyes may deceive me, my tongue may deceive me, my hands may deceive me, my nose may deceive me, my ears may deceive me, my mind may deceive me, but with You in my heart, Lord, You will never deceive me or lead me astray.

I know that the Eucharist is all these because You have revealed them.

Oh, what a joy it is to gaze in awe and adoration of the miracle that is the Eucharist.

-Fr. Jeremy Bock, Poem written April 2011.

SIGNS of LIFE - The Sign of the Cross
Simple gesture, yet one of the richest of creeds. Acknowledges that we bear the name of God, The Father, The Son, & The Holy Spirit. That God lives in us. The cross is our 'yes' to the one who died and rose for us. In praying this simple prayer reminds us who we are talking to and what He has done for us.
