From the Pastor's Desk

Fr. Troy Schweiger

August 29, 2021

This past year has been a time of great blessing for our parish! While we have all experienced our fair share of challenges and struggles, God's grace has been present through it all. St. Patrick Parish continues to live the mission of our faith and our parish – to be disciples of Jesus Christ in the world. As you know, once a year I give a financial report so that you can see how YOUR parish has lived out the call to be good stewards and has faithfully and wisely utilized the financial resources that you have generously donated as a sign of your faith and a return to the Lord for all the blessings He has given! I am including in this week's bulletin the 2020-2021 "State of the Parish" report which includes a Fiscal Report. This week I will dive deeper into the report with you from the pulpit, sharing the blessings and the challenges that we have faced and that lie before us. Please feel free to look over the report. The parish Finance Committee has met throughout the year and have been invaluable in guiding the major decisions we have had to face. Additionally, the Parish Council meets monthly (except July) and examines the budget. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me. I hold very strongly to the principle of transparency, as the pastor of the parish I am but the steward of the spiritual and financial resources. You are also more than welcome to contact any member of the Finance Committee or the Parish Council to ask them questions as well. In full disclosure, those members are:

The Msgr. David R. Hintz Council 13576 Knights of Columbus at St. Patrick treated our altar servers to a night of fun, fellowship, fireworks and baseball last Friday night with the Lincoln Saltdogs. Thanks to Steven Becker, Jim Bunch, Mike Hosek, Zach Hosek, Greg Philson, Terry Ryan, Father Schweiger and David Wilson for hosting the boys. It was a long night after a weather alert delayed the start of what turned out to be a very long baseball game. The Saltdogs didn't win, but the fireworks display was worth the wait. We'll be hosting another altar server appreciation event in the fall with the Lincoln Stars hockey club. If you were not able to attend, please pick up your certificate of appreciation the next Mass you serve. They can be found in the sacristy.
