J.M.J.

This past week we marked the anniversary of the tragic Roe v. Wade decision that legalized abortion and has brought about the loss of life of more than 60 million children in the United States. In the light of this massive number, it struck me that we can so easily lose sight of the most important aspect of the whole situation – the individual child, mother and father. It's easy to get caught up in the political battles and sometimes we can even place undue hope or experience undue despair at the ups and downs on the political front. In the face of this, I have always been convinced that the way in which we will bring about an end to abortion has to begin with the conversion of hearts, both our own and those caught in tragic and difficult circumstances where abortion seems like the only choice. This battle is for the hearts and souls of each and every one of us, a battle to love. Any successes achieved on the political front will be in vain if we don't win the battle of love. I offer you the following saints as those whom you can call upon to bring an ever deeper conversion to the Culture of Life. I pray they will accompany you on this journey.

St. Gianna Molla, who as a mother and doctor sacrificed her own life for that of her child and who is patroness of unborn children, mothers, and physicians, pray for us and the vulnerable, especially those who are pregnant with health complications.

St. Gerard Majella, who is sought after for miracles such as the ones from his lifetime and the young girl whose life and the life of her baby were saved through his handkerchief after his death and who is patron of expectant mothers and saint, pray for us and the vulnerable, especially those in extreme pain and in need of miracles to live.

St. Raymond Nonnatus, who miraculously survived his own birth by cesarean section, though losing his mother in the process, and lived his life working to evangelize despite being held ransom, and who is the patron saint of obstetricians and midwives, pray for us and the most vulnerable, especially those who need to hear the word of God or have lost a life during pregnancy or childbirth.

St. Brigid of Ireland, who was pure and generous since her childhood in a pagan society and who is said to be a close friend of St. Patrick as she helped spread Christianity and serve God through the Church, and who is patroness of midwives, pray for us and the most vulnerable, especially those in need of friendship and working in a society that doesn't understand them.

YOUR GIFTS TO THE LORD JANUARY 23, 2022

Adult Offering: $6993.00

Loose Offering: $ 447.29

Total: $7440.29

Weekly collection needed to meet expenses $10,500

Monthly Mortgage $31,500

St. Philomena, who is saint who was martyred at the age of thirteen as a perpetual virgin having opposed Emperor Diocletian's marriage offer and miraculously survived the consequential torture, drowning, and arrows until she was decapitated and who is patroness of children, pray for us and the vulnerable, especially the innocents in impossible circumstances.

St. Maximilian Kolbe, the saint who was sent to a concentration camp for hiding Jews from Nazis and voluntarily took the place of a father and died in a gas chamber and who is patron of the unborn, pray for us and the most vulnerable, especially those discriminated against because of prejudice or politics.

Saint Pope John Paul II, who is well-known for his works on the theology of the body, for his life before and during his papacy, and promotion of respect of human dignity and who is the patron of World Youth Day, pray for us and the most vulnerable, especially those who don't know their worth.

St. Joseph, whose was chosen by the Father to be the foster father of His Son and the most chaste spouse of His Holy Mother Mary and so dutifully and virtuously fulfilled his role in serving God and who is patron of fathers, pray for us and the most vulnerable, especially the fathers and those without father-figures.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, who is patroness of the unborn, pray for us and intercede for us that we may have the courage like you did to accept God's Will and follow the path for which He designed us.

The 2022 St. Patrick Festival committee had to make another difficult decision to modify this year's festival scheduled for March 12th. We will have a drive through only option for the dinner from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. with the raffle being held at 4:00 (will be live streamed like last year). Our humble request from you, fellow parishioners, is the $10 donation to help cover our costs of food and supplies. The $10 festival donations can be put in an envelope marked "Festival" and placed in the offering plate or dropped off at the rectory office. More details will continue to be in the bulletin. Thank you and God bless!

Festival Raffle: Thank you again to all who donated raffle items! Raffle ticket sales are a big part of our festival success; our past sales have been wonderful! The festival committee thanks you and appreciates all your efforts to make the raffle sale the success it has been! Please consider picking up a book or two of tickets, as we will be handing them out after all Masses the last weekend in January and first weekend in February. Additionally, tickets will be available in the back of the church, at the rectory and at the school office. Tickets can also be purchased using the website/phone app Venmo; code @StPatFestival. Sold tickets and money will be collected Feb. 26-27 and Mar. 5-6 after all Masses. The day of the festival they can be dropped off when picking up food or at the gym entrance between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m.

Celebrate Life Magazine - free pro-life magazine, Catholic perspective is back; Covid 19 is the reason it hasn't been available. Issues are available in the library, on the table in narthex and on the ledge of the social hall window across from the table in the narthex. Remember our Knights council receives bulk issues which are free to keep as resource, pass on, return if you choose. Spring 2021: "new book brings pre-born world alive for kids. The many dangers of hormonal birth control." Winter 2021: "Fighting sex ed in schools, hidden complications of abortion."

History Glimpse

One hundred years ago, the people of St. Patrick parish no doubt looked back on their previous four years with some relief. Just as we have had to endure a pandemic and its variants, they, too, had had to endure the deadly 1918 flu and its resulting health restrictions and fearsome outcomes. St. Patrick School had been closed from Oct. 7 to November 4, and then again December 20 due to an outbreak of the flu and smallpox. There was much sickness among the faculty. There were just four nuns who manned the school those years. They were Dominican Sisters of St. Catharine, Kentucky, and they found that illness made life extra difficult. Fortunately, the parishioners were very considerate and helped the Sisters out. The nuns had no convent yet, and made their home in the unused classrooms above the church. By 1922, they may have found life considerably improved. A convent had finally been built for them after a strike interfered with the delivery of needed goods, and on Jan. 24, 1921, they moved in to their new home. Now those Sisters are part of St. Patrick's history as is the church building and convent, but some things do remain the same, don't they?
