Stewardship as a Way of Life

"It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." — Mark 10:25

Jesus uses tough language that we may not want to hear. But we are all called to be generous with our gifts. Not just the ones we pick and choose, but all of our gifts and especially the one that means the most to us! That includes our time in prayer with God, our talent in participating in parish ministries and our treasure supporting our local parish and other charities.

Scrip for Sale

Don't forget to stop and get some scrip, we sell it after Masses on the weekends or at the

AREA CATHOLIC COMMUNITIES

Articles in the tenth month of the year of St. Joseph focus on him as the protector of the Holy Family.

At the advice of an angel, a pregnant Mary is accepted as his wife. After the birth of Jesus and adoration by the Magi, another dream orders Joseph to take his family to Egypt for safety. Only after the death of Herod does the family return to their home country, specifically to Nazareth. We cannot sum up Joseph in one word. In addition to protector, be Joseph is described as defender. His qualities include gentleness and tenderness, as well as a man of silence.

October is also Respect Life Month. We look to St. Joseph as an example of our call to protect, safeguard and defend God's gift of human life.

In 1995 Pope St. John Paul II wrote an encyclical called the "Gospel of Life". In addition to threats including abortion and euthanasia, John Paul expands on other threats that seem justified by human law. How do we protect?

We remember that:

Each of us is made in the image and likeness of God.

We have the capacity to love.

Our dignity is connected not only to our creation, but to our final destiny to spend eternity with God.

What is our call?

We are to reverence and love every human being. Expectant mothers face many challenges including lack of support.

When we serve the homeless or less fortunate, they feel respected when approached with humility and love.

What about the homebound? A story (P. 48) in the September issue of 'the WORD among us' shares how the visitor realizes her prayers had been answered through prayer from another. Do you remember a time you felt prayed for?

It takes trust in God to care for, protect and defend the lives of every human. Sometimes it also takes courage.
