NEW YEAR PRAYER:

Thank You Lord for giving me
The brand new year ahead.
Help me live the way I should
As each new day I tread.
Give me gentle wisdom
That I might help a friend,
Give me strength and courage
So a shoulder I might lend.
The year ahead is empty,
Help me fill it with good things
Each new day filled with joy
And happiness it brings.
Amen.

Since 1970, the Feast of the Epiphany has been celebrated on the Sunday after January 1st. The Council of Tours in 567 proclaimed the twelve days from Christmas to Epiphany as a sacred and festive season. Many festivals were preceded by a period of fasting, including the season of Advent.

The Three Kings, also called Magi, were members of a Persian priestly caste. The Bible tells us they offered gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh.

Gold recognizes Jesus as King.

We offer our obedience.

Frankincense acknowledges Jesus priesthood. Just as incense rises at church, our praise and prayers rise to heaven.

Myrrh as an embalming oil foretold Jesus death. As a symbol of death and the afterlife, we offer our body and soul even in our brokenness.

We trust in Jesus.

The words to “What Child is This?” were written in 1865 by William Dix and sung using the tune of an English Folk song called ‘Greensleeves’.

While the lyrics allude to Jesus humility; the third verse can be compared to Holy Mass we celebrate, including the Christmas Mass.

A lesser known song, “Child of the Poor” was published by Scott Soper in 1994. The two songs have been sung together by many artists and groups including Notre Dame’s Folk Group.

The photo images used with this inspire. (Use the words: ‘Notre dame folk group child of the poor’ to search for this version in your internet browser).

Many comment this song helps them find hope while recognizing what we do for the least of these is essential.

Music never dominates our Liturgy, music serves.

Whether one sings loud or soft, on pitch or out of tune, we sing our praises to God.

Music represents the character of each liturgical season.

Music is for the glory of God.
