Stewardship as a Way of Life

"John answered them all, 'I baptize you with water; but he who is mightier than I is coming ... He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit'" (Luke 3:16).

The Catechism states that "Jesus' immersion in the water is a sign for all human beings of the need to die to themselves to do God's will." In other words, as baptized Catholics there is only one gift that we need to give to Jesus — the gift of ourselves. Surrender yourself to God, place your trust in Him and allow the Holy Spirit to work through you for the greater glory of God.

Today is The Baptism of the Lord. Today also closes the Christmas season. At Christmas we contemplated Jesus' humanity at his birth. Epiphany finds Christ manifested to the entire world as represented by the Magi. Now at his baptism we witness his divine nature as the Father's voice speaks and the Holy Spirit descends in the form of a dove. "You are my beloved son; with you I am well pleased".

How can we celebrate this day?

Remember who brought you to church for Baptism, parents and godparents (or sponsor for adults).

Light a candle. Christ is our light.

Remember the white baptismal gown, a symbol of purity.

Baptismal vows and the Apostle's Creed can be read together, the beliefs of our faith.

Continue to live out our baptismal call. The call to be: Priest: as gifts are offered up at Mass, we also offer our lives to Christ. Ask that your life be used for His glory. Prophet: A prophet speaks for God. Live your life as an example before others. Spend intentional time with Him daily in prayer. If you have children, intentional time is teaching them about their faith.

King: Kings lead others. Does your example lead others to God? Do you bring peace to them? When we view kingship in this way, we realize all of us lead. We listen, respond, and collaborate. We further the Kingdom of Jesus.

The oils we received at Baptism freed us from sin.

The water gave us new life.

The Holy Spirit welcomed us with gifts that unlocked the theological virtues of faith, hope and charity.

We received grace: sanctifying grace.

Ordinary Time of winter begins.

Ordinary time represents ordered or counted time.

As we learn more about Jesus public ministry, we quietly grow and mature in our faith. The color green also reminds us of growth. We can make this time

'extraordinary' by being intentional about our spiritual growth.
