EASTER SUNDAY

When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed.

Reflections

The tomb was empty. In the early morning darkness of that first Easter, there was only confusion for Mary Magdalene and the other disciples. But as the daylight spread, they saw the dawning of a new creation.

At first they didn't understand the Scripture, today's Gospel tells us. We don't know which precise Scripture texts they were supposed to understand. Perhaps it was the sign of Jonah, who rose from the belly of the great fish after three days. Or maybe Hosea's prophecy of Israel's restoration from exile. Perhaps it was the psalmist who rejoiced that God had not abandoned him to the nether world.

Whichever Scripture it was, as the disciples bent down into the tomb, they saw and they believed. What did they see? Burial shrouds in an empty tomb. The stone removed from the tomb. Seven times in nine verses we hear that word—"tomb."

What did they believe? That God had done what Jesus said He would do—raised Him up on the third day). What they saw and believed, they bore witness to, as today's First Reading tells us. Peter's speech is a summary of the gospels—from Jesus' baptism in the Jordan to His hanging on a tree, to His rising from the dead.

We are children of the apostles, born into the new world of their witness. Our lives are now "hidden with Christ in God," as today's Epistle says. Like them, we gather in the morning on the first day of the week—to celebrate the Eucharist, the feast of the empty tomb.

We rejoice that the stones have been rolled away from our tombs, too. Each of us can shout, as we do in today's Psalm: "I shall not die, but live." They saw and believed. And we await the day they promised would come—when we, too, "will appear with Him in glory."

Easter is a time of great rejoicing for the Christian, for we have experienced the penance of lent, the sorrow of Passiontide, and the Glorious Resurrection of our Lord. Renewed in our actions, prayers, and Liturgies, please take the time to make sure this joy enters your souls through acts of Thanksgiving to God.

NEWS & UPDATES

The Women of Welcome of St. John's in Wahpeton are hosting a "Divine Mercy mini-retreat" next Sunday, April 28 from 1 to 4:30. This is a time to relax and refresh your soul. Authors Patti Maguire Armstrong and Roxane B. Salonen will be speaking on the Divine Mercy and St. Faustina and St. Padre Pio. All women are invited to participate in this time of prayer. To register, call St. Johns at (701)642-6982

Please consider taking advantage of online giving to either St. Philip's or St. Anthony's. For more information and to participate go to <http://stphilip.weconnect.com>

Father Sautner has very few Mass intentions in both parishes. After 10 years of trying to catch, he has successes. Now is a great time to have a Mass offered.

We are hoping to move forward with our new sound system. We have raised nearly half the money needed. When we have reached that point, we will consult with the Bishop. Our hope is to have the new system in place by this Autumn.

We will be continuing having Holy Hours throughout the Easter Season at 8 pm. They will not be held as consistently as during Lent, but the hours will complete with Compline. Watch the bulletin for schedule. Please consider joining us for these prayers as Spring continues to blossom around us.
