

Saint Philip's

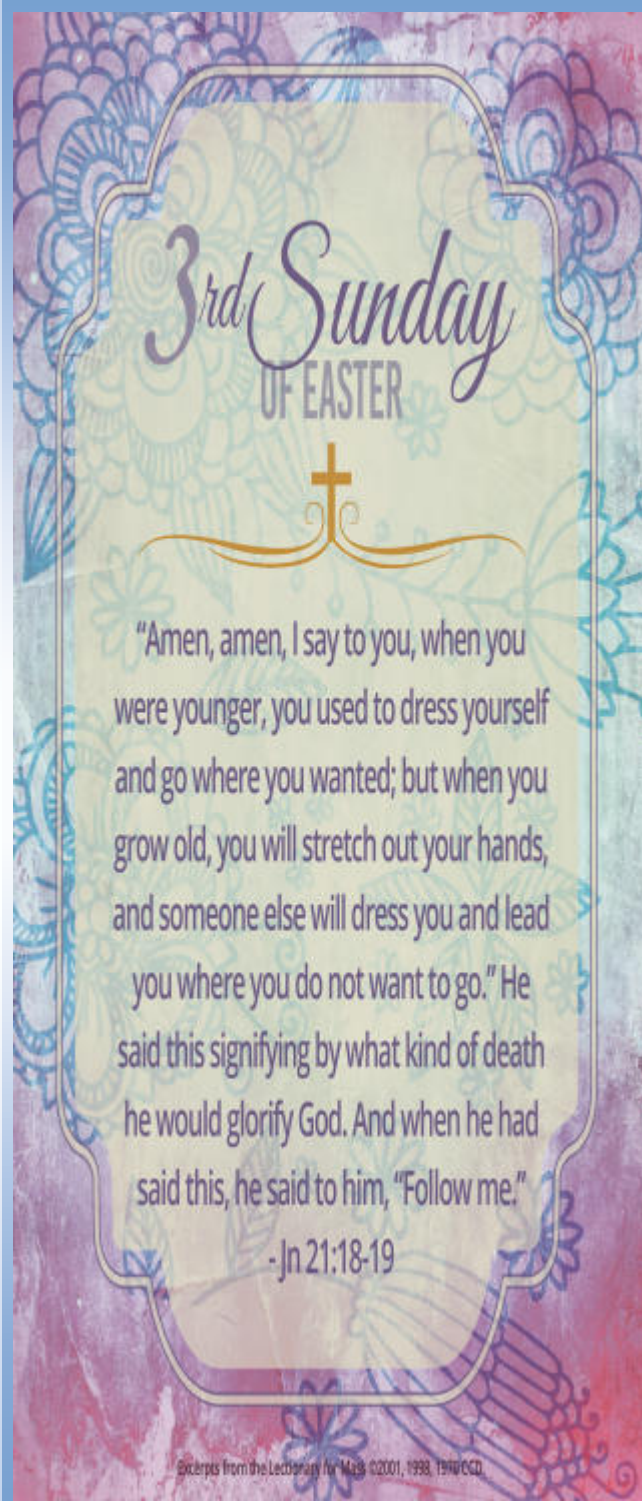

HANKINSON

The month of May is dedicated to the Mary, whom we celebrate as Queen of Heaven on the last day of this month. Early in May, a statue of the Virgin at church is crowned with a wreath of roses, and the same are laid at her feet.

Mother of May,
pray for us.

Reflection

There are two places in Scripture where the curious detail of a “charcoal fire” is mentioned. One is in today’s Gospel, where the Apostles return from fishing to find bread and fish warming on the fire.

The other is in the scene in the High Priest’s courtyard on Holy Thursday, where Peter and some guards and slaves warm themselves while Jesus is being interrogated inside.

At the first fire, Peter denied knowing Jesus three times, as Jesus had predicted.

Today’s charcoal fire becomes the scene of Peter’s repentance, as three times Jesus asks him to make a profession of love. Jesus’ thrice repeated command, “feed My sheep,” shows that Peter is being appointed as the shepherd of the Lord’s entire flock, the head of His Church.

Jesus’ question, “Do you love me more than these?” is a pointed reminder of Peter’s pledge to lay down his life for Jesus, even if the other Apostles might weaken.

Jesus then explains just what Peter’s love and leadership will require, foretelling Peter’s death by crucifixion (“you will stretch out your hands”).

Before His own death, Jesus had warned the Apostles that they would be hated as He was hated, that they would suffer as He suffered.

We see the beginnings of that persecution in today’s First Reading. Flogged as Jesus was, the Apostles nonetheless leave “rejoicing that they have been found worthy to suffer.”

Their joy is based on their faith that God will change their “mourning into dancing,” as we sing in today’s Psalm. By their sufferings, they know, they will be counted worthy to stand in heaven before “the Lamb that was slain,” a scene glimpsed in today’s Second Reading.

NEWS & UPDATES

Please consider taking advantage of online giving to either St. Philip’s or St. Anthony’s. For more information and to participate go to <http://stphilip.weconnect.com>

Father Sautner has very few Mass intentions in both parishes. After 10 years of trying to catch, he has successes. Now is a great time to have a Mass offered.

We are hoping to move forward with our new sound system. We have raised nearly half the money needed. When we have reached that point, we will consult with the Bishop. Our hope is to have the new system in place by this Autumn.

Calvary Cemetery clean-up is today, Sunday, May 5th after Mass. The Jr. and Sr. High students along with any volunteers will be doing a spring clean up and minor Maintenance. Please come and help if you are able. Bring any rakes, shovels, gloves and any other items to use to clean with. Any questions or more info, please contact Matt at 899-0270
