THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

Then he led them out as far as Bethany, raised his hands, and blessed them. As he blessed them he parted from them and was taken up to heaven. They did him homage and then returned to Jerusalem with great joy, and they were continually in the temple praising God.

- Lk 24:50-53

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Lord Jesus, in this Easter season we celebrate today your Ascension to God's right hand as the goal of your resurrection from the dead. We thank you that you have not left us orphans, because you remain with us to the end of time. May we always be glad when we think of the many ways you are with us to the end of time. May we always be glad when we think of the many ways you are with us: in the Eucharist, in your Word, in one another, in your ministers. May we respond to your presence by keeping your commandments, above all, to love one another as you have loved us. Amen.

Reflection

Jesus is praying for us in today's Gospel. We are those who have come to believe in Him through the Word of the Apostles, handed on in His Church.

Jesus showed the Apostles His glory, made known the Father's name, and the love He has had for us from "before the foundation of the world."

He revealed that He and the Father are one. Jesus is the "first and the last", the root of David, as today's Second Reading declares.

Wrapped in clouds and darkness as God was at Sinai, He is "the king...the Most High over all the earth," as we sing in today's Psalm.

Exalted at God's right hand, as Stephen sees in the First Reading, the Lord calls to us through the Church, His Bride.

He calls us to "the tree of life," to communion with God. This is the goal of His love, His saving purpose from all eternity - that each of us enter into the life of Blessed Trinity, be "brought to perfection as one" with the Father and Son in the Spirit.

The story of Stephen, the first martyr, shows us how we are to answer His call.

Listen for the echoes of the crucifixion: Stephen, like Jesus, sees the Son of Man in glory and dies with words of forgiveness and self-offering on his lips.

We, too, are to commend our spirits to the Father, to pray and offer our lives in love for our brethren, awaiting His coming in judgment. We renew our vows in every Mass, coming forward to receive the gift of His life.

We answer His call by crying out a call of our own: "Amen! Come, Lord Jesus!"

And in our communion we answer our Lord's prayer: "That they may all be one, as You, Father are in Me and I in You."

NEWS & UPDATES

Please consider taking advantage of online giving to either St. Philip's or St. Anthony's. For more information and to participate go to <http://stphilip.weconnect.com>

Father Sautner has very few Mass intentions in both parishes. After 10 years of trying to catch, he has successes. Now is a great time to have a Mass offered.

We are hoping to move forward with our new sound system. We have raised nearly half the money needed. When we have reached that point, we will consult with the Bishop. Our hope is to have the new system in place by this Autumn.
